

April 14, 2025

RE: Tariff Exception Updates

Dear Valued Client,

The President issued a memorandum on April 11, 2025 providing clarification of exceptions under Executive Order 14257 of April 2, 2025. In this EO, the President stated that certain goods are not subject to the ad valorem rates of duty under that order. Some of the excepted products are chips, computers, and smartphones.

The memorandum of April 11, 2025 notes that products classified in the following headings and subheadings of the HTSUS are included:

8471, 8473.30, 8486, 8517.13.00, 8517.62.00, 8523.51.00, 8524, 8528.52.00, 8541.10.00, 8541.21.00, 8541.29.00, 8541.30.00, 8541.49.10, 8541.49.70, 8541.49.80, 8541.49.95, 8541.51.00, 8541.59.00, 8541.90.00, and 8542.

Any duties collected at or after 12:01 a.m. eastern daylight time on April 5, 2025 are eligible for refunds in accordance with US CBP procedures. JAS Forwarding (USA) Inc. is reviewing past entries to see if any updates can be made and our branches will reach out to confirm approval to process.

<https://www.whitehouse.gov/presidential-actions/2025/04/clarification-of-exceptions-under-executive-order-14257-of-april-2-2025-as-amended/>

<https://www.jas.com/usa-compliance-blog/client-advisory-tariff-exception-updates-4-14-2025>

Additional updates will follow once they are available.

Sincerely,

JAS Forwarding (USA) Inc.