The fund is suitable for investors seeking income, diversification and defensive investment characteristics, with exposure to global bond markets. It is to be used as a satellite/small allocation or minor component of their portfolio. These investors will have a medium investment timeframe of at least 3 years, a low to medium risk/return profile and a potential need to have access to their capital within a short timeframe (within 1 week).

TARGET MARKET DETERMINATION INDICATOR KEY

The Investor Attributes for which the fund is likely to be appropriate have been assessed using a red/green rating methodology with the following meaning:

In target market	Not considered in target market

INVESTMENT PRODUCTS AND DIVERSIFICATION

An investor (or class of investors) may intend to hold units in the fund as part of a diversified portfolio (typically with an intended fund use of satellite/small allocation or minor allocation). In such circumstances, the fund should be assessed against the investor's attributes for the relevant portion of the portfolio, rather than the investor's portfolio as a whole. For example, an investor may seek to construct a conservative portfolio with a satellite/small allocation to growth assets. In this case, it may be likely that a fund with a high or very high risk/return profile is consistent with the investors objectives for that allocation notwithstanding that the risk/return profile of the investor as a whole is low or medium. In making this assessment, distributors should consider all features of a fund (including its key attributes).

INVESTOR'S RISK (ABILITY TO BEAR LOSS)/RETURN PROFILE
	Issuers should undertake a comprehensive risk assessment for each fund. The Financial Services Council (FSC) recommends adoption of the Standard Risk Measure (SRM) to calculate the likely number of negative annual returns over a 20 year period, using the guidance and methodology outlined in the Standard Risk Measure Guidance Paper For Trustees. SRM is not a complete assessment of risk and potential loss. For example, it does not detail important issues such as the potential size of a negative return or that a positive return could still be less than an investor requires to meet their investment objectives/needs. Issuers may wish to supplement the SRM methodology by also considering other risk factors. For example, some funds may use leverage, derivatives or short selling, may have liquidity or withdrawal limitations, or otherwise may have a complex structure or increased investment risks, which should be documented together with the SRM to substantiate the fund risk rating. A investors desired fund return profile would generally take into account the impact of fees, costs and taxes.
Low	The investor is conservative or low risk in nature, seeks to minimise potential losses (e.g. has the ability to bear up to 1 negative return over a 20 year period (SRM 1 to 2) and is comfortable with a low target return profile. Investor typically prefers defensive assets such as cash and fixed income.
Medium	The investor is moderate or medium risk in nature, seeking to minimise potential losses (e.g. has the ability to bear up to 4 negative returns over a 20 year period (SRM 3 to 5) and comfortable with a moderate target return profile. Investor typically prefers a balance of growth assets such as shares, property and alternative assets and defensive assets such as cash and fixed income.
High	The investor is higher risk in nature and can accept higher potential losses (e.g. has the ability to bear up to 6 negative returns over a 20 year period (SRM 6) in order to target a higher target return profile. Investor typically prefers predominantly growth assets such as shares, property and alternative assets with only a smaller or moderate holding in defensive assets such as cash and fixed income.
Very High	The investor has a more aggressive or very high risk appetite, seeks to maximise returns and can accept higher potential losses (e.g. has the ability to bear 6 or more negative returns over a 20 year period (SRM 7) and possibly other risk factors, such as leverage). Investor typically prefers growth assets such as shares, property and alternative assets.

INVESTOR'S WITHDRAWAL NEEDS
	Issuers should consider in the first instance the redemption request frequency under ordinary circumstances. However, the redemption request frequency is not the only consideration when determining the ability to meet the investor's requirement to access capital. To the extent that the liquidity of the underlying investments or possible liquidity constraints (e.g. ability to stagger or delay redemptions) could impact this, this is to be taken into consideration in completing this section.
Within 1 week from request / Within 2 weeks of request / Within 1 month of request / Within 3 months of request / Annually or longer (additional details provided)	The investor seeks to invest in a fund which permits redemption requests at this frequency under ordinary circumstances and the Issuer is typically able to meet that request within a reasonable period.

The Issuer will rely on notifications of significant dealings to monitor and review the fund, this TMD, and its distribution strategy, and to meet its own obligation to report significant dealings to ASIC. Dealings outside this TMD may be significant because: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> they represent a material proportion of the overall distribution conduct carried out by the distributor in relation to the fund, or they constitute an individual transaction which has resulted in, or will or is likely to result in, significant detriment to the investor (or class of investor). In each case, the distributor should have regard to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> the nature and risk profile of the fund (which may be indicated by the fund's risk rating or withdrawal timeframes), the actual or potential harm to a investor (which may be indicated by the value of the investors investment, their intended fund use or their ability to bear loss), and the nature and extent of the inconsistency of distribution with the TMD (which may be indicated by the number of red or amber ratings attributed to the investor). Objectively, a distributor may consider a dealing (or group of dealings) outside the TMD to be significant if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> it constitutes more than half of the distributor's total retail fund distribution conduct in relation to the fund over the reporting period, the investors intended fund use is Solution/Stand-alone, or the investors intended fund use is Core Component and the investors risk (ability to bear loss) and return profile is Low.
