

Wyrzykowski Advisory Newsletter

September, 2025

Dear Advisory Families,

Welcome to September! This month in Advisory, we are exploring frequently asked questions about college applications and scholarships, as well as how to choose a major or career.

Identity is a major theme this month, and students will engage in activities that help them reflect on how to harness their interests and strengths when planning for the future. For example, one activity will help them construct a focused and structured response to the common question “Tell me about yourself.” In a college or career context, that response should be less about hobbies or pets, and more about passions, strengths, experience, and goals.

In partnership with you,
Mr. Wyrzykowski
