June 22 – June 27

DBA is excited to have Ms. Austin back and welcome Ms. Trinity and Ms. Zablocki. We are overjoyed to have such tremendous artists share their talents with our dancers!

JENNIFER VENABLE AUSTIN

Jennifer Venable Austin, a Knoxville native, was an original member of the East Tennessee Children's Dance Ensemble. Following high school, she majored in dance at the University of Tennessee, performing as a soloist for UT's New Repertory Dance Company. She continued her dance training in New York City: modern dance training with the Martha Graham Company, Alvin Ailey, and Limon School, while her ballet training was with the Joffrey Ballet. Jennifer's extensive jazz training includes Bob Fosse, Luigi, Frank Hatchett, and Joe Tremaine.

After several professional dance years, Jennifer founded Arts In Motion in Kingston, TN. Currently, Arts in Motion provides fine arts dance training for over 400 East Tennessee students. They currently stage the largest production of The Nutcracker in Tennessee (over 100 cast members) and are known for their Summer SOLO (Summer of Learning Opportunity) intensive dance camp - teaching modern, jazz and ballet as well as dance history, and video analysis. Jennifer has also been a choreographer for the College and Community Musical Productions (The Rocky Horror Picture Show, Oklahoma, Sound of Music, Pipin, Seussical, Oliver, Hello Dolly, You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown, and Meet Me in St. Louis). She continues her dance education with bi-yearly trips to New York City, training at Broadway Dance Center and The Ailey Institution, and teaches over 20 classes a week in styles such as ballet, jazz, modern (Graham and Limon style), hip-hop, musical theatre, pilates, and yoga.

LEA ZABLOCKI

Lea Zablocki is originally from northern New Jersey. She has had most of her ballet training from Master Gabriella Darvash, as well as the Joffrey Ballet School in NYC. She has danced with various classical and contemporary companies such as Metropolitan Classical Ballet, Dayton Ballet, Roxey Ballet, Dallas Neo-Classical Ballet, Mejia Ballet International, Contemporary Ballet Dallas, and Repertory Dance Theatre. Some of her favorite repertory includes principal and leading roles in Scheherazade, Paquita, Bolero, Gaite Parisienne, Le Train Bleu, Walpurgis Night, Les Sylphide, Christopher Fleming's The 3 Musketeers, Septime Webre's Peter Pan, as well as versions of Dracula, Othello, and too many Nutcrackers to remember. A number of ballets have been choreographed for Lea including the Firebird, Formation and the full length ballet Kaguya Hime with Dallas Neo-Classical Ballet. Lea is also currently a freelance artist in the DFW area.

TRINITY BALL

Trinity Ball brings her lifelong love of dance to her role as an instructor at Denton Ballet Academy. She first stepped into the studio at age five and has since explored a wide range of styles, including tap, jazz, ballet, pointe, character, and modern dance. For fourteen magical seasons, Trinity delighted audiences in Festival Ballet's Nutcracker, performing an array of memorable roles. Today, she shares her passion and experience with the next generation of dancers, inspiring them to grow both in skill and in artistry.

Trinity also had the opportunity to perform repertoire from "Don Quixote," "Sleeping Beauty," "Swan Lake," and many others. She also competed in YAGP for two years with classical and contemporary solos. In 2020, Trinity joined Tulsa Ballet's Trainee program. During her time at Tulsa Ballet, she also worked with Choreographers such as Ma Cong and Jera Wolf. In 2021, she joined Ballet North Texas, where she danced professionally for 4 years, working with many choreographers and performing in various ballets, including "Sleeping Beauty," "The Nutcracker," "A Midsummer Night's Dream," and "Don Quixote." Trinity has also taught classes at Denton Ballet Academy, Festival Ballet of North Central Texas, and Ballet North Texas, and has made costumes for YAGP participants, as well as for The Festival Ballet of North Central Texas's The Nutcracker, Ballet North Texas, and Ballet Papillon.

Trinity is currently a freelance dancer.
