It is important that you read this information

It will help you (the client) make an informed decision as to whether I as a financial adviser, that gives advice for products, am suitable for your needs, and whether to seek, follow or accept the financial advice I give. This Disclosure Statement is required under the Financial Markets Conduct (Regulated Financial Advice Disclosure) Amendment Regulations 2020.

What sort of adviser am I?

I am a Registered Financial Adviser (RFA) that gives advice on behalf of AIS that is a licensed Financial Adviser Provider by the Financial Market Authority of New Zealand (FMA) <https://www.fma.govt.nz/>. Financial Services Legislation Amendment Act 2019 requires AIS to hold a current license for Advisers to provide Financial Advice Services to you the Client.

To view my registration and AIS license, go to the Financial Service Providers Register <https://fspregister.companiesoffice.govt.nz/> and search our Financial Service Provider (FSP) number FSP26201. As a Licensed Financial Advice Provider, we have standard conditions on our license, these conditions are not specific to AIS and does not limit or restrict Advice that may be given.

What financial advice can we provide to you?

I can give financial advice on Insurance Products for Commercial and Domestic Clients.

Our Insurance product providers are Insurance business in New Zealand that are licensed under the Reserve Bank under section 19 of the Insurance (Prudential Supervisor) Act 2010. The Insurers have a financial strength rating from an approved rating agency. To view the Insurer ratings, click on the link <https://www.rbnz.govt.nz/regulation-and-supervision/insurers/licensing/register>.

AIS insurance product providers are required to have financial strength ratings with a minimum of A- and above. When you receive a quote from us you will be supplied the current strength ratings for the product providers that we have quoted for. If you accept the financial advice, we will supply a current rating for the product provider that you have selected.

Limitations and restrictions

I am committed to providing my clients with good financial advice that is suitable for my client's needs. I only provide financial advice on Insurance Products.

What fees do we charge?

We may charge clients fees for financial advice. We will tell you what the fee is before you accept any advice from us or our Advisers. We will charge fees that are payable by you the client when our advice is followed, accepted and the insurance policy is purchased. The fees we charge are for our service, placement, implementation and administration of the insurance policies that you choose to accept and purchase. The total fees payable may increase with the number of insurance policies that you choose to purchase.

The fees are payable by you and are due by the effective date of the policy which is on the invoice.

How do we act with Integrity?

To ensure that I prioritise your interests above my own, I follow an advice process that ensures recommendations are made on the basis of your individual goals and circumstances. I complete annual and ongoing training about how to manage conflict of interests and a register of interests is maintained. AIS monitors these registers and provides additional training where necessary. AIS performs an annual review of the compliance programme.

You should be aware there are potential conflicts of interest that you the Client may need to take into consideration when you decide to seek and accept financial advice from us, I will make you aware of any conflicts when giving advice.

How do we get paid for the financial advice and Products that we provide to you?

AIS receives commission when the client accepts our financial advice and purchases an insurance policy. The commission is paid by the Insurer (product provider's) for the insurance business on each insurance policy that the Client purchases. The commission that is paid to us can be between the range of 0-30% of the insurer portion (total premium of the Insurance Policy less government levies and taxes).
