2027 Consolidated Election Information

Public Notice of Upcoming Park Commissioner Election and Related Details

Election Announcement

Residents of Schaumburg Park District, Cook County, Illinois: Three seats for the Office of Park Commissioner will be filled during the consolidated general election on April 6, 2027. Each term begins on or about May 13, 2027, and ends on or about May 8, 2031, or until a qualified successor takes office.

The Board of Commissioners is comprised of five volunteers who serve at large for four-year terms and represent the residents of the Schaumburg Park District.

Serving without compensation, elected or appointed park district board members provide leadership to further the mission of the park district. They establish and adopt policies, establish and adopt an annual budget and tax levy, approve and monitor capital expenditures, develop and maintain comprehensive district plans, and oversee the Executive Director.
