

February 8, 2026 | VOLUME 56 NUMBER 6 | Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

your light must shine before others

THAT THEY MAY SEE YOUR GOOD DEEDS
AND GLORIFY YOUR HEAVENLY FATHER

A Letter From Our Pastor

Are you afraid of the dark?

I'm not asking about an absence of rays of visible light, or luminous flux, to you physics majors. I'm referring to spiritual darkness. The emotions so many of us go through when we lose a loved one; some struggle for years. Depression, anxiety, loneliness, despair, emptiness, a sense of uselessness, fear of the future, or a feeling of hopelessness. These emotions rob us of joy and peace, and if extreme enough, can lead to self-harm or destruction.

If you find yourself in such a downward spiral, apply the prescription given in our readings today and, as Isaiah prophesies, "...your wound shall quickly be healed;...and the gloom shall become for you like midday."

Our readings today, in fact, call all of us to be the Light of the World!

Our first reading, responsorial, gospel acclamation, and gospel are all about defeating spiritual darkness! We are all called to be like several friends of mine, I like to call "Sunshine" because they always radiate joy, never seem to take themselves too seriously, and light up every room they enter. I find a common trait with these people is that they are constantly living the life described by our readings - doing for others, always looking for some way to pitch in and help. They are also the most faith-filled people I know. They can't contain their joy and love, and it flows through their selfless actions and ready smiles. They have mastered dying to themselves and living for others.

Their only agenda is to leave the world a better place than they found it. They feed off and are energized by this sacrificial mindset, first demonstrated to us by Christ. And they have no fear of death as they know they will enter into the Light of Christ for all eternity. Thank you, God, for these bundles of your love, walking amongst us in disguise as humans; help us to surrender to you as they have so that we too might chase away the darkness in others.

Blessings,
Fr. Eddie

TUESDAYS OF LENT 7PM

Does anyone go to purgatory anymore? What does the Catholic Church teach about it? Does everyone go there? How can I help the souls in purgatory?

Lent is really about transformation. Turning away from sin and back to God. How does purgatory fit into this journey?

Join us this lent for sharing, discussion, and prayer based around the book, Hungry Souls by Gerard Aardweg, PhD.

Live, online, every Tuesday of Lent at 7:00pm
$21 + Cost of Book Scan the QR Code to sign up or email info@imageandgift.com for more information.

Brought to you by:
Image and Gift Ministries, LLC
www.imageandgift.com

Mark your calendar and plan to join us for our Annual Festival Fundraiser Pastalaya Dinners, sponsored by the Cajun Booth! Stop by the Activity Center on Sunday, March 8, from 9:00 AM to 12:00 PM for a delicious carry-out meal. Dinner is $10, and new this year, be sure to try our Boudin Egg Rolls — 2 for $4.

Presales will be available and dinners will be sold at the door.

Help us with our St. Joseph Altar!

It takes many hands to prepare a beautiful altar tribute to St. Joseph—especially this year as we plan a larger altar than last year. If you would like to help with baking, setup, serving lunch, or cleanup, please sign up using the link on the parish website at stnbr.org/news/altar.

LENTEN REFLECTION BOOKLETS

As we enter the holy season of Lent, our parish is pleased to offer Following Jesus, a Lenten reflection booklet designed to guide daily prayer and conversion of heart. Filled with thoughtful reflections from Pope Leo XIV, Pope Francis, St. Teresa of Calcutta, and Henri Nouwen, this booklet invites us to walk more closely with Christ through the days of Lent.

Copies will be available in the church next weekend. All are encouraged to take one and deepen their journey of faith this Lent. One copy per family, please.

A second collection will be taken up this weekend, Feb. 7-8, the second Sunday of the month, to help reduce the debt incurred from the beautiful church renovations and the new parish office building. If you'd like to make a donation online, please visit giving.parishsoft.com/App/Giving/FD-554 and click on RENOVIATION DEBT REDUCTION.

Our monthly food collection weekend is Feb. 14-15. Please bring donations of canned goods and staples to any Mass and leave items in the storage bench in the back of the church. These monthly collections support the food pantry at St. Paul the Apostle Catholic Church on Gus Young Ave. Thank you for your continued generosity!

SANCTUARY LIGHTS

The sanctuary light in the church will burn in memory of Frank DePaula the week of February 8, as requested by the DePaula family.
