

Ana Cazeneuve

Associate

Ana Cazeneuve is an associate attorney practicing exclusively in family law. She handles all aspects of divorce, including complex custody disputes, property division, support, and enforcement issues. Ana also has experience negotiating and drafting premarital and postnuptial agreements and represents clients in matters involving domestic violence and restraining orders.

Fluent in both Spanish and French, Ana is able to serve a diverse client base with clarity and compassion. She is known for her thoughtful, strategic approach and her commitment to resolving emotionally charged issues with practical, results-oriented solutions. Ana advocates firmly for her clients while maintaining a focus on minimizing conflict and fostering long-term stability for families.
