Associate

Andrea Lovrincevic is an associate attorney at DRS Family Law, where she brings a strategic approach to complex family law matters, with a practice spanning high-conflict divorce, child custody and support, property division, and restraining orders. Andrea is known for her meticulous preparation, creative problem-solving, and focused advocacy, inside and outside the courtroom.

Andrea's clients value her not only for her legal acumen but also for her empathy and dedication to their well-being throughout the divorce process. She understands that family law clients are often facing one of the most difficult times of their lives, and she is committed to providing strong legal guidance and genuine support throughout the process. Andrea ensures her clients feel heard, informed, and empowered at every stage, helping them navigate uncertainty with clarity and confidence.

Before joining DRS Family Law, Andrea practiced at law firms in San Francisco and Beverly Hills, representing clients in high-net-worth divorces and complex custody matters. Her background also includes experience in civil litigation and probate law, which has allowed her to provide comprehensive legal support to individuals and families facing a wide range of legal challenges.

Outside of her legal practice, Andrea is an animal lover, an avid reader, and enjoys staying active.
