Today's Sermon

The Spirit's Guidance

Psalm 143

Ps. Leroy Mortimer

QUESTIONS

for individual reflection, family devotion or cell group discussion

1. To be led of the Spirit is to walk by the Spirit.
Discuss the aspects of walking by the Spirit in Romans 8:5-8, 13-15.
2. How would you respond to someone who has said, "There is only objective truth (the written word of God); there is no such thing as subjective truth (the mysterious inner promptings of the Holy Spirit)?"
3. Share an instance of how the Holy Spirit has led you. Perhaps it was to do (or not do) something, or in making a decision or in guiding you in a difficult situation, or even convicting of sin or a particular error.

The book of

Revelation

The Book of Revelation is undoubtedly one of the harder books within the bible for many to read. We think it worth the effort at St Paul's for us to try to understand this book together as a community. A 4-session course has been put together for the study of the Book of Revelation facilitated by Yee Peng and slated for four Saturday mornings.

10am-12pm

New Life Room

Lesson 1 - 25th April

Lesson 2 - 9th May

Lesson 3 - 16th May

Lesson 4 - 23rd May

Unfortunately, if you come hoping to get the secret code to when Jesus Christ will come back, you will be disappointed. Instead, we will read the book carefully with understanding of the context during John's time and learn more about the character and will of God and how the Book of Revelation can help guide us in our living today.

Come join us in this study. We are keeping the number of participants to a maximum of 25.

Fellowship

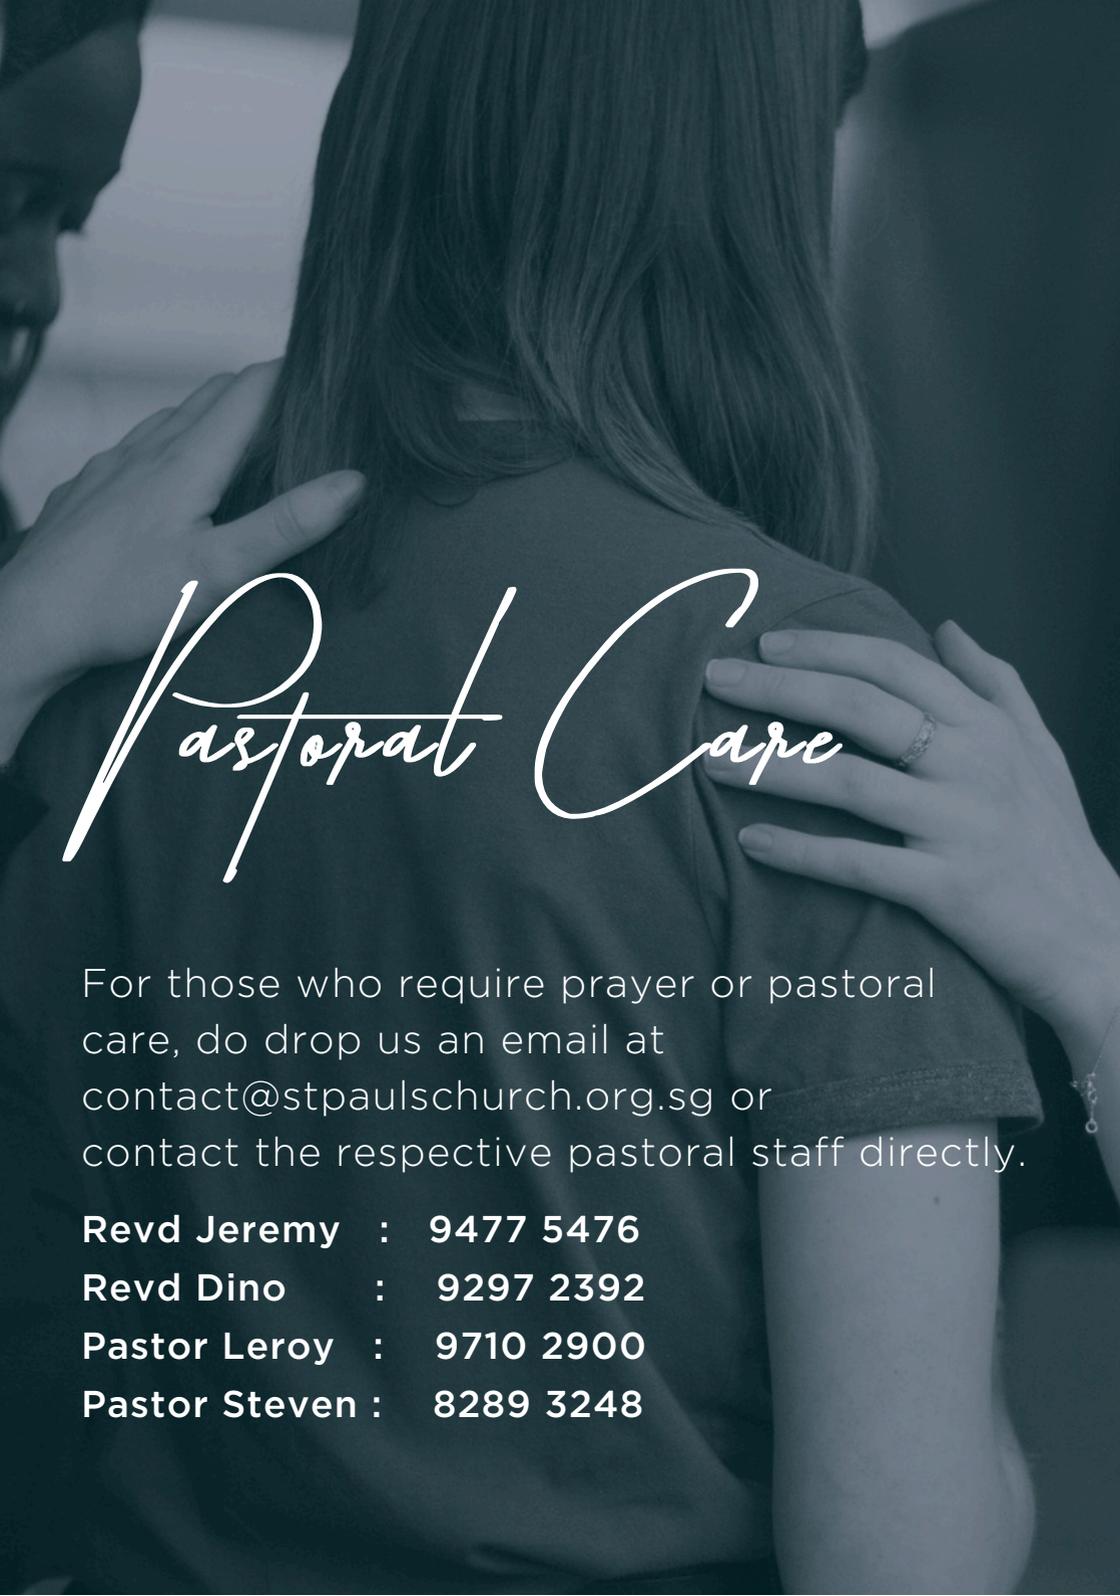

The background of the entire image is a sunset or sunrise scene. The sun is a bright, glowing orb in the center, partially obscured by the silhouettes of several people. The sky transitions from a deep blue at the top to a warm orange and yellow near the horizon. The silhouettes of the people are dark against the bright light of the sun, and their arms are raised in a gesture of praise or joy. The overall mood is one of hope, renewal, and community.
