

ST PAUL'S CHURCH

When they heard these things they fell silent. And they glorified God, saying, "Then to the Gentiles also God has granted repentance that leads to life."

Acts 11:18

26 April 2026

4th Sunday of Easter

Almighty God,
whose Son Jesus Christ is the resurrection
and the life of all who put their trust in him:
raise us, we pray, from the death of sin to the life of
righteousness,
that we may seek the things which are above,
where he reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

QUESTIONS

for individual reflection, family devotion or cell group discussion

1. What were the prejudices in the lives of both Peter and Cornelius which would have prevented Peter from speaking to a gentile and Cornelius from accepting the God of Israel? What were the conditions of their heart which needed to be present for the Holy Spirit to work?
2. How did the Holy Spirit show that it is not Peter's effort or ingenuity that both Cornelius and his household were saved? What key principle can we learn from this?
3. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you identify the religious, cultural or social prejudices that may have prevented us from showing Christ's love and compassion in being an effective witness for Him. How can we help others overcome similar barriers?
