Mohd. Suhel Vs. SDO (Civil), Nuh & others.

Present: Sh. J.S. Saini, Ld. counsel for the plaintiff.
Sh. Vipin Jain, Ld. counsel for defendant No.1.
Sh. Mishant, Ld. GP assisted by Javed, Halqua Patwari, Nalhar on behalf of defendants No.2 to 5.
Sh. Vipin Jain, Ld. counsel for applicant Ali Mohd. son of Bhagmal.

Pursuant to notice fresh power of attorney filed on behalf of defendant No.1 Javed, Halqua Patwari appeared on behalf of defendants No.3 to 5 alongwith an authority letter. Ld. counsel for the appearing defendants sought an adjournment for filing the written statement and reply to stay application but the request is opposed by Ld. counsel for the plaintiff, who prayed for grant of ad-interim injunction.

At this stage, fresh power of attorney and an application U/o 1 Rule 10 CPC has been filed on behalf of applicant Ali Mohd. son of Bhagmal seeking permission of the Court to be impleaded as defendant in the present case. Copy supplied to the Ld. counsel for the plaintiff.

Considering the urgency involved in the matter arguments on ad-interim injunction heard. It is submitted by Ld. counsel for the plaintiff he is in settled possession of the suit land and his possession is duly reflected in the jamabandi for the year 2017-18. It is submitted that the SDO (Civil), Nuh has passed an order to disturb the settled possession of the plaintiff without giving an opportunity of being heard to him. It is submitted that the defendants have no legal right to disturb the settled possession of the plaintiff without following due process of law. During the course of arguments, Ld. counsel for the plaintiff also relied upon order dated 1.12.2018 passed by the Court of Sh. Vineet Sapra, the then Ld. ACJ(SD), Mewat passed in civil suit bearing No. CS-773-2018 titled as “Mohd. Suhel Vs. Deena etc.” and submitted that even in the said order the possession of the plaintiff has been acknowledged by the Court. It is prayed that the ad-interim injunction may kindly be granted.

On the other hand, it is submitted by Ld. counsel for defendant No.1 assisted by Ld. GP and the Halqua Patwari that the plaintiff has no concern with the suit land because he has already alienated the property exceeding his share. It is submitted that the plaintiff cannot seek injunction without seeking the relief of partition. It is submitted that the SDO (Civil), Nuh has passed an order against the plaintiff because he is encroaching upon the government land by installing a steel container. It is submitted that there are numerous cases pending against the plaintiff. It is prayed that the request for ad-interim injunction may kindly be declined.

After hearing the rival contentions at length, this Court comes to a conclusion that at this initial stage, it would be inappropriate to disturb the settled possession of the plaintiff over the suit land which is apparent from the jamabandi for the year 2017-18 and from the order dated 1.12.2018 passed by the Court of Sh. Vineet Sapra, the then Ld. ACJ(SD), Mewat passed in civil suit bearing No. GS-773-2018 titled as “Mohd. Suhel Vs. Deena etc.”. It is also to be ensured that the plaintiff shall not make any further encroachment on the government land, hence, it is directed that status quo regarding possession be maintained by all the parties till further orders.

In order to ensure that there is no violation of the court order, it is directed that both the parties shall submit photographs of the spot by 4.00 p.m. today itself. File be taken up at 4.00 p.m.
