

Earl Shaffer wrote in his diary: Songbirds sing sweetly... The warbling of a woodthrush warbles somewhere far below. The raucous calling of a fledgling crow waft upward.

In the boxes below, draw different birds that you see or hear. What sounds do they make?

