Sportman's Club Gaslight Melodrama Theatre & Dinner

For the month of April, our Sportsman's Club event story begins like this; it was the 26th, a dark and dreary day. Perfect for us to leave town for some entertainment which took place at the Gaslight Melodrama Theater and Music Hall in Bakersfield. We were a motley group of characters arriving at the dimly lit joint and soon made our way cautiously to the tables, ours were reserved quite near a very large stage. No doubt we were placed there to be close enough for tomfoolery! Yikes!

In no time, the snack bar was open, and we cued up to go in. What we encountered was a hilariously decorated, brightly lit service area where we were met by raucous singing, bell ringing, crazy and funny waitpersons in stage make-up and costumes! For purchase there were assorted snacks and drinks of every kind. Including, oh be still my fainting heart, wine by the bottle! Oh my!

Soon enough, we got back to our tables topped by vintage style newspaper menus, then the lights went out. Squeals!! Ha-ha, not really! Just as suddenly, the stage lights came up, the background set designed as an office was visible, and a dark silhouette of a man in a hat was seated at a desk. And so it began, the 'who-done-it' show quickly started and we were off to some real fun! Delightedly, each actor performed their roles with top energy and seemed to have as much fun as the audience, especially during a few gaffs.

After the main melodrama show ended, the company took a quick break and then came back to perform a short music and dance skit based on an airport terminal drama. The song and dance talent displayed in that skit was really great! It was quite a sweet treat to complete the night's entertainment! Six actors, two acts with an intermission, presented one great time for all!

P.S. The small troupe of actors, as it turned out, were the very boisterous snack bar attendants whom our group had enjoyed earlier! Bravo!

As a super ending to a happy afternoon, we enjoyed dinner at the Hungry Hunter restaurant nearby where we ate and talked about upcoming Sportsman's Club events such as our next one: The famous, annual CHILI COOK-OFF!!! This kindly competitive event is to be held at Cub Lake and is scheduled for SATURDAY, MAY 30th.

BVS SPORTSMAN'S CLUB

SATURDAY, MAY 30th
AT CUB LAKE

CHECK IN AT 3 PM & TASTING AT 4PM

WE NEED A MINIMUM OF 12 TO 15 ENTRIES

The rules are simple: Your chili must be made by you, so there are no packet sauces, etc., just honest natural ingredients. Chilies will be judged by all attending. Bring your Chilies, in an electric crockpot. (Don't forget the electric cord & serving spoon)

The event is open to all residents of Bear Valley. If more than one family member wants to enter a Chili, that is allowed.

If you are coming to taste the chilies or just join in the fun, bring an appetizer or trimmings to go with chili, such as chips, salsa, guacamole, grated cheese, salad, roast beef sandwiches, caviar, or dessert, etc., and bring your own chair and drinks.

The Sportsman's Club will provide tasting pots, spoons, bowls, plates and cups for drinks.
