ABOUT MEOW WOLF

The original permanent Meow Wolf exhibition, House of Eternal Return is a monumental achievement in DIY world creation and collaboration, featuring work by local and community artists.

At House of Eternal Return, people of all ages are encouraged to explore a curious family home, a mysterious tragedy born out of scientific experimentation, and the spectacular dreamworlds that have emerged in its wake. Simultaneously an expression of punk subversion and magical humanness, Meow Wolf Santa Fe is boldly playful in its presentation and willingness to reveal the hands of its creators.

Meow Wolf champions otherness, weirdness, challenging norms, radical inclusion, and the power of creativity to change the world.

"Experience the original Meow Wolf."

LIGHTS AND SOUND

Won't you take me to...Fancytown!

Our venue is outfitted with a state-of-the-art live sound system, plus an elaborate contemporary stage lighting and projection mapping system.

A sound engineer will be provided at an hourly rate.

For a DJ set up, a sound engineer is needed two hours prior to the event start time, the entirety of the event, and one hour after the event ends. This accounts for load-in, sound check, and tear down.
