

UNIRISC, Inc. a division of Risk Strategies acquires Willis Relocation Risk Group

Business unit purchase adds significant expertise to existing global relocation insurance and risk management services capabilities

BOSTON, February 16, 2021 – UNIRISC, the relocation insurance division of leading national specialty insurance brokerage and risk management firm Risk Strategies, today announced its acquisition of Willis Relocation Risk Group, a specialty business unit which operated within Willis Towers Watson Global Marine providing insurance, risk management and claims solutions designed specifically for the mobility and relocation industries. Terms of the deal were not disclosed.

Adding to its 2020 acquisition of leading global relocation insurance and risk management specialist UNIRISC, the purchase of Willis Relocation Risk Group positions Risk Strategies as the preeminent risk management advisor to the global moving and relocation industry.

"We are very excited by the opportunities and synergies this partnership will bring to our clients and team members," said Ken McClinton, Risk Strategies' Managing Director at UNIRISC. "This simply could not be a better fit for both UNIRISC, Willis Relocation and Risk Strategies."

Serving a uniquely complex and demanding market, Risk Strategies' UNIRISC Division brokerage team customizes coverage for everything from vacant homes to household goods on a worldwide basis. Its third-party administrator group employs proprietary technology to manage and streamline the claims process for self-insured relocation clients.

The Willis Relocation Group operations will be merged into UNIRISC's operating structure, adding to its overall capabilities. This merger of capabilities, experience, and expertise will significantly enhance the UNIRISC division's ability to deliver world-class client service provided while continuing to offer the industry's most innovative insurance solution.
