

What if one missing piece could fit
every corner of the world?

What's missing?

THERE IS SO MUCH NEED IN THE WORLD.

Across the world, organizations, churches, and individuals often invest heavily in three main areas:
Evangelism, Bible Translation, and Humanitarian Aid.
These are important and worthwhile investments.

BUT WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

- After someone becomes a Christian, who will walk with them to help them grow?
- After they receive a Bible, who will help them understand what they read and how it applies to their life?
- After they are physically fed, who will help them discover never-ending spiritual food?

FAR TOO OFTEN,
PEOPLE
ALONE.

SOMETHING IS MISSING

converted, but confused

spiritually parched and starving

with a spiritual map but directionless

improved, but still impoverished with new birth, but spiritually orphaned

Countless people are together but still feel alone.

awakened to love, but stuck in a desert
of disconnection

a stranded seeker without a guide

converted, but confused

with no one to hold them accountable

stronger, but struggling

IF WE WANT A DIFFERENT OUTCOME,

WE NEED A DIFFERENT APPROACH.

JESUS REVEALS
THE MISSING PIECE:

DEEPLY INTERWOVEN RELATIONSHIPS

SMALLCIRCLE IS DELIVERING
THIS MISSING PIECE TO THE WORLD. →

This missing piece was never missing from God's intentions.

“ I pray...that all of them may be one, Father, just as you are in me and I am in you.” John 17:20-21

SmallCircle makes it possible to personalize disciple-making for ANYONE, ANYWHERE.

SMALLCIRCLE'S APPROACH IS DISTINCT IN FOUR STRATEGIC WAYS:

- 1 Two-person innerweaving fosters deep connection.
- 2 Slow-motion pacing cultivates lasting transformation.
- 3 Timothy-producing reproducing multiplies disciple-makers.
- 4 Open-handed regifting reduces barriers.

1 Two-person innerweaving fosters deep connection.

Big life change starts small.

A personalized, one-to-one approach is core to SmallCircle. This is the way that Jesus often interacted with people, like the woman at the well, Zacchaeus, Nicodemus, Martha, and others. These interactions were deeply personal.

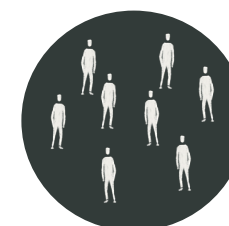

Our name, SmallCircle, comes from the “smallest circle” that is commonly missed, because most disciple-making efforts focus primarily on groups.

Church

Large gathering

When attending church on Sunday, we can be seen.

Groups

3-10 people

In small groups, we might be heard.

SmallCircle

One person + one person

We need a circle where we can be deeply known.

2 Slow-motion pacing cultivates lasting transformation.

Disciple-making is more like a farm than a factory.

While many disciple-making approaches last just weeks or months, SmallCircle's approach is intentionally slow-paced. This unhurried approach—in the context of a trusting one-to-one relationship—allows space for personal questions and struggles that normally stay hidden to rise to the surface and be transformed through patient conversation and transparency.

8 weeks Many disciple-making programs are 8–10 weeks long.

■ / ● = one week

15 months The typical length of SmallCircle's Xchange track is about 15 months.

3 Timothy-producing reproducing multiplies disciple-makers.

85% of disciples become disciple-makers.

The SmallCircle tools are designed to have disciples identify and launch with their future disciple before they complete their own journey. As a result, over 85% of disciples become disciple-makers and we are now seeing a sixth generation of disciples.

Our model is rooted in 2 Timothy 2:2, which lays out a vision of at least four generations of disciple-making.

"What you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses entrust to faithful men, who will be able to teach others also."

4 Open-handed regifting reduces barriers.

SmallCircle is committed to open-handedly giving away our tools.

At SmallCircle, we believe that the transformative experience of one-to-one disciple-making is a gift we have received, and therefore one we want to freely share. Through the support of generous financial investors, SmallCircle is able to make our disciple-making tools and training available around the world at no cost.

SmallCircle provides donor-funded tools to guide and personalize disciple-making at every stage of the faith journey.

Our donor-funded online and in-person training equips people around the world for one-to-one disciple-making. Scan to sign up for online training.
