

A Cell of The Offshore Mutual Fund PCC Ltd Minimum Disclosure Document (MDD) and Factsheet as at 31st of March

Investment Objective

The Martello Global Equity Fund ("the Fund") aims to achieve long term capital appreciation through investment in listed equities on a global basis.

The fund is primarily intended for investors with a long-term horizon of at least 5 years.

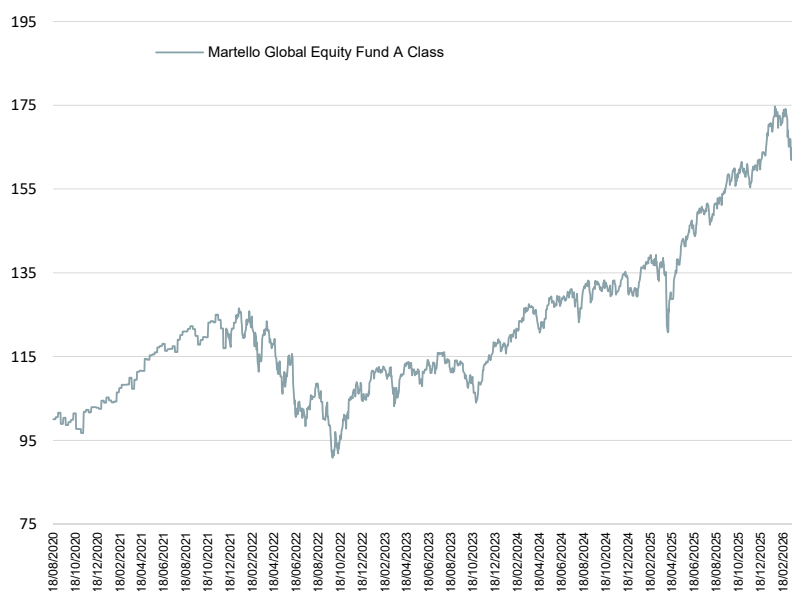

Investment Strategy

The Fund will invest in a diversified portfolio of listed equities. Assets of the Fund are typically limited to, but not confined to, those companies listed on the markets of the UK, Europe and North America.

The investment advisor will apply a rigorous investment selection methodology to select securities for the Fund's investment portfolio. These criteria are designed to ensure that the Fund invests in high quality businesses with proven management competencies and strategy execution.

It is envisaged that the investment portfolio of the Fund will be concentrated, comprising between 20 and 30 stocks. However, the portfolio will be invested with the aim of providing a prudent spread of risk, and there are limits on the concentration of the investments held.

Fund Commentary - March 2026

Prior to the onset of the Middle East conflict, sectors including energy, materials, industrials, utilities, and telecommunications had led market gains, buoyed by improved US economic indicators and healthy earnings expectations. Technology lagged due to worries over AI disruption to traditional software business models and concerns around the amount and availability of capital required to support the capex requirements of the massive data centres needed to support AI. The performance of UK and European markets began to outpace that of the US.

These trends were swiftly overshadowed by "Operation Epic Fury". US-Israeli strikes on 28 February triggered Iranian retaliation and disruptions across the Gulf. Markets remained resilient initially, but closure of the Strait of Hormuz sent energy prices soaring, sharply impacting risk assets. Brent crude spiked from mid-$70s to over $120 before settling between $90 and $110 – the largest quarterly gain since 1990. Markets subsided through March, as they endured a rollercoaster of investor emotions through March, fed by a diet of daily news conferences and conflicting signals around developments on the ground.

Consequently, US equities ended Q1 lower (S&P -4.3%, Nasdaq -7.1%). European and Asian equities also fell sharply after war erupted, with the FTSE 250 ending down 5.6% and Euro Stoxx off 4.8% in the quarter, while the broader Japan market fell some 10% in March alone.

The Fund also lost ground during March, but thanks to January's strong gains and more defensive positioning across sectors and geographies, performed relatively well over the first quarter, returning -0.7% compared to -3.2% for the Morningstar Developed Markets USD benchmark.

Top contributors for the month included GTT, ASML, Exxon, SLB, and Monolithic Power Systems, benefiting from chip and energy trends. While Novo Nordisk was previously a detractor from performance, dropping after weak trial data and results, it later offered defensiveness during the Iran conflict, staying flat in March. The fund returned -6.6% during March, in line with the benchmark return of -6.6%.

Looking ahead, we remain tilted towards a positive outlook for equities, while being realistic about the short-term volatility that may persist while the US looks to find an exit route from this unfortunate foray into the Middle East.

Additional factors to be considered when investing

The Fund is invested in a concentrated portfolio which comes with the risk of more volatile returns relative to the broader market.

Investors are reminded that an investment in a currency other than their own may expose them to a foreign exchange rate risk.

Exchange rates may also have an independent, favourable or unfavourable impact on the value of the Fund.

The Fund will invest in global equities and securities, which may expose the portfolio to specific country risks such as macroeconomic and political risks, foreign exchange risks, tax risks, settlement risks, potential limitations on the availability of market information as well as potential constraints on liquidity and the repatriation of funds.

The Scheme is an umbrella company constituted as a Protected Cell Company under the Guernsey Companies Law. The provisions of the Companies Law enable a company to which it applies to create one or more cells for the purpose of segregating and protecting the assets within those cells so that, on the basis that the company complies with the conditions laid down by the Companies Law, liabilities of the company attributable to one cell can only be satisfied out of the assets of that cell and even if those assets are insufficient, recourse cannot be had to the assets of any other cell.

The Manager does not provide any guarantee, either with respect to the capital or the return of this cell. The latest prices may be viewed on Bloomberg, Morningstar and other providers. The Manager reserves the right to close the fund to new investors to manage the fund more effectively.

All investment returns are shown net of transaction costs and should not be deducted again for comparative purposes. Any additional fee charged by a financial services provider to distribute the product to you is not included in the TER and must be disclosed to you separately. A higher TER does not necessarily imply a poor return, nor does a low TER imply a good return. The current TER cannot be regarded as an indication of future TER's. Transaction Costs are a necessary cost in administering the Fund and can impact returns. They should not be considered in isolation as returns may be impacted by many other factors over time including the accumulation of assets, market returns, the type of fund, the investment decisions of the investment manager and the TER.
