

Relaxing in the Sunshine

There's nothing quite like a sunny afternoon to lift everyone's spirits! Our Residents took full advantage of the lovely weather, enjoying some fresh air, good company, and peaceful moments outdoors.

A Special Birthday

We had a wonderful celebration at College View as our amazing resident, Brian, marked a very special birthday on Tuesday, May 20th. Brian was surprised with a party surrounded by family, friends, and fellow residents.

A Heartwarming Concert

We had the pleasure of welcoming back the wonderful Mary Harwood for another of her heartwarming concerts here in College View. A talented singer and guitarist, Mary is a cherished regular here — and it's easy to see why. Our residents were all smiles, singing along, clapping to the rhythm, and some took to the dance floor.

59th Wedding Anniversary

A huge congratulations to Eileen and John Briody, who celebrated their 59th wedding anniversary here at College View! Their love, commitment, and companionship continue to inspire everyone around them. It was a joy to mark such a special milestone with them, filled with smiles, warm wishes, and happy memories.

Susan's 101st birthday

Our beloved resident Susan marked an incredible 101st birthday here at College View and she did it in true style. To honour this special occasion, Susan received a letter and commemorative coin from the President of Ireland / Uachtarán na hÉireann Michael D. Higgins which was proudly presented by our Activities Coordinator, Fiona

An Afternoon of Entertainment

We had a great 'Hoolie' when the very talented Tony Newman came to entertain us in College View. Tony is a great singer and knows all the songs our Residents love to sing along with.

Helen's Birthday Celebrations

Our wonderful resident Helen celebrated her birthday with not one but two parties - she celebrated with her family and friends during the day and had a second celebration with everyone in College View that evening. As always for birthdays there was lots of birthday cake and singing 'happy birthday', cards and gifts.

Bingo Fun

Our College View Bingo Champions were all smiles as they claimed their fabulous prizes.

Positive Age Afternoon with Special Guest Mary Lou McDonald

On Friday, May 9th, a group of our residents enjoyed a fantastic outing to a Positive Age Afternoon, led by our wonderful Activities Coordinator, Fiona. It was a joyful event full of smiles, music, and community spirit — made even more special by the presence of Mary Lou McDonald - Sinn Féin, who took time to chat and pose for photos with attendees.

Green Fingers

Here's a look at our vegetable garden so far this year — and it's coming along beautifully! We've been busy adding two new planters and planting even more delicious veg, including potatoes, turnips, cabbage, and parsnips. We've also planted two new plum trees, which we hope will bring us tasty harvests in the seasons to come.

'Forget Me Not' Cafe

Our College View residents enjoyed a lovely outing to the Forget-Me-Not Café, a welcoming and supportive space created by the Cavan Branch Alzheimer Society .

Father's Day Celebrations at College View

We had a wonderful time celebrating the amazing dads, grandads, and father figures here at College View! The smiles, laughter, and stories shared made it such a special day for everyone involved.

Michael's 90th Birthday

We had the absolute pleasure of celebrating Michael's 90th birthday here at College View Nursing Home! Michael marked this incredible milestone surrounded by love, laughter, and family. Pictured with his daughter Lisa, his son Shane, and his beloved grandchildren Willow and Caleb — it was a beautiful moment for all.

Music Wednesdays at College View

We had the pleasure of welcoming the talented Mary Harwood for a midweek music session, and what a treat it was! Residents sang along, clapped in time, and soaked up the joyful atmosphere as Mary filled the room with classic tunes and good cheer.
