

A Pawsome Visit

We welcomed Mario & Sarah from Irish Therapy Dogs, along with their charming dogs Charlie and Elisah, for a special visit with our residents. The dogs brought smiles and joy wherever they went — visiting residents in the sitting room, stopping by bedrooms for those enjoying a duvet day or a post-lunch siesta, and spreading happiness throughout Oakwood Lodge.

Sunrise A New Beginning

Our residents enjoyed a wonderful Arts & Crafts session with guest artist Tracey, creating pieces around the theme "Sunrises – A New Beginning.

Anto the Music Man

What a brilliant afternoon we had with Anto the Music Man. Our residents absolutely loved it — the singing, the laughter, and the feel-good energy he brings every time he visits.

Birthday Celebrations

We love celebrating special moments with our residents, and Adrian's birthday on 25th January was no exception. Here he is, just about to cut into his fabulous birthday cake, which was shared with everyone and thoroughly enjoyed.

Celebrating Long Service

On Friday, January 23rd Grace Healthcare Ireland Management Team celebrated colleagues who have dedicated many years of service to caring for residents across their 10 nursing homes in Ireland.

Creative Christmas Angels

We were delighted to welcome Tracey, who worked with our Residents as part of our Arts & Crafts programme to create these beautiful Christmas Angels for our tree. It was wonderful to see the creativity and care our Residents put into each piece – every angel was unique and beautiful.

Painting Angels in Arches

Painting Angels in Arches

The fourth Advent is here and we are going to paint some Angels and mount them onto the black arched backgrounds included in the pack. You can give your painted Angels to those you love for Christmas. Wishing you all a very Merry Christmas..

Our Residents had a wonderful time participating in arts and crafts recently, welcoming guest artist Tracey for a very special project called “Painting Angels in Arches”.

Mass at Oakwood Lodge

Our residents and staff were joined by Fr. Rajesh for a beautiful celebration of Mass here at Oakwood Lodge. It was a peaceful and uplifting time, reminding us of the importance of nurturing spiritual needs alongside physical and social care — a key part of life in our home.

Santa's special visit to Oakwood Lodge

We had a wonderful hoolie filled with singing, dancing, fabulous food, and even a wee festive tipple. Here are some lovely photo memories from a truly special day, capturing the joy, laughter, and Christmas spirit shared by our Residents and Staff.

Celebrating Rose's 84th Birthday

Our fabulous resident Rose celebrated her 84th birthday in style on January 15th with a right hoolie. Don, our guest musician, led everyone in singing Happy Birthday as the team presented Rose with her beautiful birthday cake. A lovely day filled with music, laughter, and new memories for all.

Heart Awards

We were proud to congratulate Anthony Santhosh from Oakwood Lodge, on receiving a Grace Healthcare Ireland Heart Award.
