

Volcules Ukulele Group

A big thank you to the Volcules Ukulele Group here in Dunshaughlin for a wonderful afternoon filled with music and Christmas cheer. Our residents absolutely loved it — from Mags singing on the mic, to Tom and Angela sharing a laugh, it was smiles all around.

Enjoying Winter Sunshine

Pictured here are some of our Residents enjoying the beautiful winter sunshine in our garden and courtyard areas. Fresh air, natural light, and the beauty of our outdoor spaces make every day at Dunshaughlin Care Home special.

Festive Moments at Dunshaughlin Care Home

Looking Back at another beautiful experience for our Residents in the run-up to Christmas. Here are photos of a wonderful morning with musician and singer Declan, who shared the story of the Nativity through song and story. It was a truly enjoyable and heartwarming experience for all our residents, bringing smiles, music, and festive cheer.

Keeping Fit

Staying active is so important for both body and mind, and our residents enjoy taking part in regular gentle exercise sessions designed to suit all abilities. From stretching and movement to plenty of smiles and laughs along the way, it's a wonderful way to keep everyone feeling energised and engaged.

Peace on Earth

Our talented residents created a beautiful Peace on Earth artwork for our home, and it turned out fantastic. Their creativity and teamwork shone through in every detail.

Harry's Birthday Celebrations

We were delighted to celebrate Harry's 89th birthday with him back in December. Harry spent the day surrounded by family, friends, and fellow residents, making it a truly special occasion with lovely new memories made for all.

Alison and Millie 🐾🐾

Our residents were delighted with their weekly visit from Alison and Millie. Millie continues to bring great joy to our residents and clearly loves her weekly visits just as much as they do.

Heart Awards - Celebrating Exceptional Care

We were delighted to congratulate Kevin Doyle & Estela Brillo from Dunshaughlin Nursing Home, proud recipients of Grace Healthcare Heart Awards. The ceremony on Friday, 23 January celebrated staff from across the Grace Healthcare Ireland nursing homes, who were nominated by their peers for exceptional care and professionalism.

Lismullen Cookery School

A Heartfelt Thank You to Lismullen Cookery School for visiting our residents over Christmas. It was such a pleasure to host your wonderful singing, and the chats with our residents brought so much joy to everyone.

Residents Learning Sign Language

Our residents have been enjoying something a little different as they take part in sign language sessions. Learning new skills helps keep minds active, encourages communication, and brings plenty of fun and laughter along the way.

Music, Memories & Smiles at Dunshaughlin Care Home

Our wonderful volunteer Tony entertained residents recently, joined by a special guest musician who added to the magic. The music filled the room, bringing smiles, toe-tapping, and lovely moments shared with family visitors, who thoroughly enjoyed it too.

A Special Christmas Mass

We were delighted to welcome our local parish priest, Fr. Sean, who celebrated a beautiful Christmas Mass for our residents. Our residents enjoyed joining in by singing much-loved Christmas carols, and the service concluded with a comforting Christmas blessing that was truly appreciated by all.

Celebrating Long Service

On Friday, January 23rd, the Grace Healthcare Management Team celebrated colleagues who have dedicated many years of service to caring for residents across their 10 nursing homes in Ireland.

Dunshaughlin Christmas Party

We had a wonderful Christmas party here in Dunshaughlin, with our amazing musician Declan filling the home with festive cheer. A huge thank you to Santa Claus, Chris, for delivering gifts and spreading joy, and to all the families who joined their loved ones to make the day so special.
