D. RIVER PARKS AUTHORITY PARK USAGE FEES

The Board will review current River Parks park usage fees and consider potential modifications. Staff will present an overview of existing fee structures, historical context, and comparative data from peer park systems. The discussion will include analysis of event-related costs, staff time required for application review and coordination, and maintenance impacts associated with permitted activities. This item is intended to support a comprehensive evaluation of whether current fees remain aligned with operational needs, community expectations, and the increasing demand for both open public access and organized events within the River Parks system. Recommendations for potential adjustments will be presented for Board consideration.
