

IndexAtlas Completes East Asia Investment Strategy, US$403 million of Bonds Repaid, Equity Investors Realize 278% Annualized Return

December 2, 2025, Basel – IndexAtlas has completed its first investment strategy focused entirely on Asia media and financial services industry, exited all related investments and distributed capital to bondholders and equity holders in form of both cash and selected assets.

In May 2023, after 23 years of investing predominantly in North America and Western Europe, IndexAtlas launched its Asia-focused investment strategy centered on supporting the financial services and media companies seeking to bring Asian products, innovation, service excellence and reach to international clients.

This highly leveraged equity strategy focused on special situation investing in listed stocks, IndexAtlas' specialty since the firm's inception in 2000, was unwound through a series of exits, mostly in Q4 2025, and resulted in full redemption of four separate bond facilities, all ahead of their respective maturities, for an aggregate US$403 million at par value. This multicurrency investment strategy (original funding coming in CHF 100 million, EUR 155 million and USD 100 million) delivered 278% realized return to equity holders on an annualised basis.

IndexAtlas' East Asia investment strategy included, among others, exits from: the global visual effects and virtual humans powerhouse Digital Domain Holdings Limited (547: HKG), the APAC asset manager C Capital owned by Swiss-listed Youngtimers AG (YTME: SWX), the short form scripted content platform Crisp Momentum (CRSF: OTC Markets), the Japanese cable, content production and distribution platform Wowow Inc. (4839: T) the US-listed parent company of the Chinese duanju business FlexTV, Mega Matrix (MPU: NYSE), Hong Kong-listed asset manager and financial services firm DL Holdings (1709: HKG), the US listed health-science company Prenetics (PRE: NASDAQ) and the East Asia focused investment banking and financial services firm Jakota Capital Holdings Ltd (1486: HKG).

“We entered Hong Kong when it had been deserted by international investors, and we made it the hub for our Asia play. We focused on Asia’s cultural industries’ innovation and global export. And we placed our bets on the young Asian entrepreneurs who are far more confident about growing their business globally than their elder predecessors. Those decisions delivered stellar returns for our East Asia strategy,” commented Mr Sergey Skaterschikov, the founder and Managing Director of IndexAtlas.

IndexAtlas is working on its future investment strategy and will make related announcement in due course.
