

OTTP-NorCal 2025 SPONSORSHIP

BUILDING A BRIGHTER FUTURE THROUGH YOUR SPONSORSHIP

Partner with OTTP-NorCal

Embark on a transformative journey with the Occupational Therapy Training Program, OTTP-NorCal, as we forge meaningful partnerships with forward-thinking businesses and individuals who champion mental health causes and share an unwavering commitment to empowering local youth.

By aligning your brand with OTTP-NorCal, you become a catalyst for change, directly impacting the lives of Northern California children, teens, and young adults, who are navigating the challenges of social and economic inequities. Your sponsorship serves as a beacon of hope, fostering crucial development opportunities in personal, educational, and vocational realms that, in turn, make a meaningful impact on the hope and overall quality of life for these children and youth. Join us in making a positive difference.

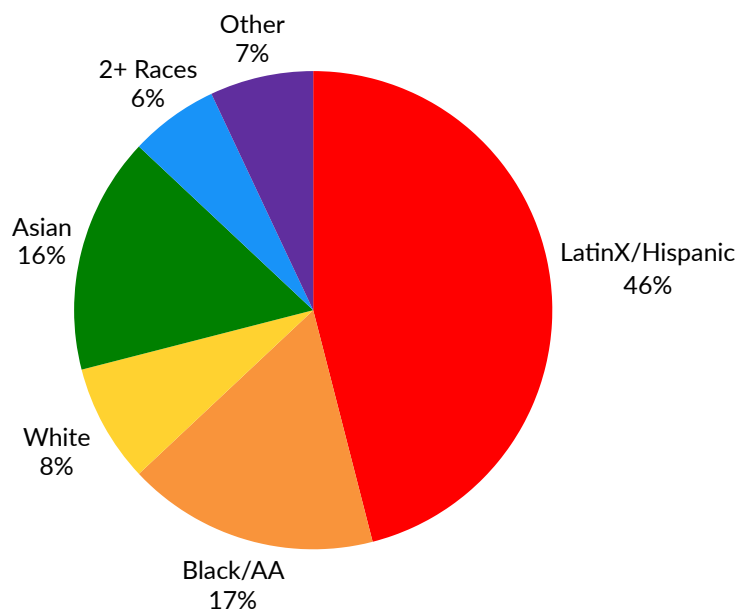

Invest in a brighter future for Northern California youth.

OTTP-NorCal, a division of Special Service for Groups, Inc., a 501(c)3 non-profit, boasts a 25-year history of providing comprehensive mental health services to youth throughout Northern California. We carefully consider partnerships, believing in mutually beneficial collaborations within our community.

OTTP-NORCAL YOUTH CLIENTS

OTTP-NorCal provides mental health services to youth, ages 2-24. Youth may be referred to us for the following reasons: they are facing mental health challenges, impacts from trauma, learning disabilities, social-emotional difficulties, and/or developmental delays. The youth that OTTP-NorCal serves are living at or below the poverty level. They may be unhoused, food insecure, have special education status, on probation or detained, pregnant or parenting, navigating the foster care system, or a combination of the above.

WHY SPONSOR?

Increase brand exposure and expand your customer base. OTTP-NorCal has a wide network of community partners, subscribers, and followers. When your business sponsors OTTP-NorCal, you will have the benefit of consistent visibility.

Bolster your reputation. More than ever, consumers want to support companies that are making a positive impact. Current customers will see your commitment to your values, and new customers will be drawn in by your social impact.

Increase employee retention. Job seekers are increasingly pursuing careers with companies that give back. Employee fulfillment, motivation, commitment, and performance are all enhanced by an organizational social impact initiative.

OUR MISSION IN ACTION

Meet Stephanie, a testament to the transformative impact of OTTP-NorCal. Supported by OTTP-NorCal, Stephanie discovered a passion for photography through the First Exposures program, fostering a sense of belonging and community. OTTP-NorCal also facilitated connections with the Mayor's Youth Education & Employment Program, paving the way for various youth jobs, including an impactful role at the Pacific News Service.

Throughout high school, OTTP empowered Stephanie to communicate with teachers, advocate for personal needs, and ultimately become the first in the family to graduate. Stephanie enrolled in City College, earning a California Child Development Associate Teacher permit and eventually completing an AA-T degree in Child and Adolescent Development in 2021.

Now attending San Francisco State University, Stephanie is on track to become a Child Life Specialist, driven by a strong belief in advocating for children's voices and recognizing the importance of family visibility. Stephanie found their path, and OTTP-NorCal played a crucial role in paving the way.

Stephanie's journey exemplifies the profound impact of OTTP-NorCal's mental health support, touching the lives of over 1,000 Bay Area youth annually. Your sponsorship enables us to continue empowering young individuals like Stephanie, fostering personal, academic, and vocational success for a brighter, healthier future.
