Songs by the Brook

Springbrook Park - Alcoa, TN
In case of inclement weather, the concert will be rescheduled

next concert
AUG 21
6:00 pm

Becki Grace (6:00 PM)
This popular East Tennessee singer/songwriter actually started singing in performance here in the Springbrook neighborhood at the age of three with her mom and sisters at the First Baptist Church of Alcoa. Music has remained a constant in her life. She and her late husband, Jeff Livingston, performed as 3 Mile Smile and released four successful albums. She is also the host of Local Honey, a radio series on Knoxville Community Media that features original music by female musicians from the area.

Cruz Contreras (6:35 PM)
First with Robinella and the CCstringband, then as the fire and heart of the Black Lillies, this multi-talented artist has stood on stages from Conan O'Brian's late-night set to the Grand Ole Opry with over forty appearances! He is a multi-instrumentalist, songwriter, bandleader, producer, and storyteller whose voice cuts through noise like a well-honed blade. Now touring behind his debut solo album, Cosmic, Cruz is joined once more on tour by a band of road-tested companions under the name of Cruz Contreras and the Black Lillies.

Run Katie Run (7:50 PM)
Run Katie Run is a band of best friends whose love for one another and for making music jumps off the screen and is palpable at every live show. This well known Atlanta based band centers around powerhouse vocalist, Kate Coleman, with ongoing themes of resilience and of handling life's challenges with a sense of humor and sassy one-liners. Run Katie Run has shared the stage with artists including Melissa Etheridge, Dawes, and the Blind Boys of Alabama.
