A Warm Welcome From The Team

A warm welcome to all employees, partners, suppliers, customers and friends of 2024 BTCC Champions, Laser Tools Racing with MB Motorsport, to our full-throttle race day experience in the British Touring Car Championship.

We are delighted to offer key members of the Laser Tools Racing with MB Motorsport business community a unique opportunity to take in one of the most exciting and dramatic sporting spectacles in the UK, trackside with the team for an unforgettable experience.

At the circuit, you'll take in the three showpiece BTCC races of the day, get the chance to have a tour of the garage, meet the team and drivers and enjoy full hospitality all day.

The access that the BTCC allows its VIP guests is unrivalled - and with the exception of driving the cars themselves, it's pretty much all available for you to get involved with!

INTRODUCING THE BTCC

Welcome To The BTCC

The British Touring Car Championship (BTCC) is one of the world's most iconic motorsport series, captivating fans since 1958 with its intense, road-car-based racing. Few championships boast such heritage, and generations of spectators have packed UK circuits to watch top drivers push everyday car silhouettes to extraordinary limits.

Through the decades, the BTCC has blended tradition with innovation. Legendary manufacturers and independent teams have battled on equal terms thanks to balanced regulations, while recent developments – from sustainable fuels to lighter, more agile cars and all new qualifying race format – keep the racing closer and more competitive than ever.

Today, the BTCC commands a vast and growing audience. More than 350,000 fans attend trackside each year, and ITV's national coverage reaches millions more, boosted further by global streaming through TikTok and YouTube. Entering its new era, the BTCC remains Britain's premier motorsport series: fast, accessible and relentlessly exciting.

INTRODUCING MB MOTORSPORT

Introducing Áróń Taylor-Smith

Áróń Taylor-Smith, began his career in karting before moving into the Renault UK Clio Cup in 2007. Over three seasons he secured race wins, podiums, and a best championship result of fourth, later adding victories and another fourth-place finish during a successful year in Clio Cup Italia. His progress culminated in a BTCC debut point at Knockhill in 2011.

He joined the BTCC full-time in 2012 with Motorbase Performance, immediately becoming a competitive force with a maiden win at Brands Hatch and back-to-back top-ten championship finishes. Success continued with Team BMR in 2014 and 2015, where he earned multiple wins and podiums, before adding another memorable victory for Team BKR in 2016.

Returning to the BTCC in 2021 with Team HARD's new Cupra Leon, he continued to score consistently before moving to Power Maxed Racing in 2023. His strongest BTCC season followed in 2024, where he and teammate Mikey Doble secured both Independent titles, with Taylor-Smith earning his first BTCC championship trophy as Independent Drivers' Champion.

Introducing Gordon Shedden

Gordon Shedden is one of the BTCC's most accomplished drivers, holding 53 career victories and three championship titles. He made an immediate impact in his 2006 debut season with Team Halfords, winning four races in the Honda Integra Type R and finishing fourth overall, before becoming a consistent front-runner after switching to the Honda Civic in 2007.

Across the following decade, Shedden established himself as a dominant force in the championship. He regularly finished inside the top three, secured his first title in 2012, and went on to claim back-to-back championships in 2015 and 2016 — completing a remarkable seven-year run of top-three points finishes. His ability to deliver wins under pressure and extract pace across multiple Honda platforms made him one of the era's defining drivers.

Shedden continued adding victories well into the 2020s, with his most recent win coming at Croft in 2022. His sustained competitiveness, adaptability and winning pedigree place him firmly among the BTCC's greatest modern champions.

Introducing Mark Blundell

A legend of British Motorsport, Mark Blundell drove at the pinnacle of motorsport throughout his career, racing in F1, IndyCar, World Rally Championship, British Touring Car Championship and the Le Mans 24 Hours.

After progressing his way through the junior ranks, Mark enjoyed a distinguished career at the very top of the sport. 61 starts in Formula One brought multiple podium finishes whilst racing for the likes of McLaren, Brabham, Ligier and Tyrrell across a golden era for the sport.

Alongside his Formula One duties, Mark enjoyed immense sportscar success, most notably taking a memorable pole position at the 24 Hours of Le Mans in 1990 before taking the outright victory in 1992. Mark also became one of the very first British drivers to enjoy a great deal of success in the United States, taking on the very best that IndyCar had to offer enjoying multiple wins along the way.

Stepping away from elite racing, Mark was a part of ITV's BAFTA-award winning Formula One coverage from 2003 to 2008 and has established himself as one of Europe's most recognised motorsport managers through his role as CEO of market-leading sports management group, MBP.
