

Movie Review Template

A movie review should begin with an introduction, followed by a brief summary of the movie, then your analysis and evaluation, and end with a conclusion.

1. Introduction

- Film title, director, release year
- Genre or style
- Brief hook about the film's impact or uniqueness

Example Starters:

- Directed by [Director's Name], [Film Title] (Year) explores...
 - At first glance, this [genre] film promises...
 - What immediately stands out about [Film Title] is...
-

2. Plot Summary

- Setting and time period
- Main characters and their goals
- Central conflict or challenge

Example Starters:

- The story follows [Character Name] as they...
- Set in [location/time], the film centers on...
- Without giving too much away, the plot revolves around...

3. Analysis of Film Elements

- Direction and storytelling style
- Acting performances
- Cinematography and visual style
- Soundtrack and sound design
- Themes and symbolism
- Pacing and editing

Example Starters:

- A pivotal scene occurs when...
- The director uses [technique] to emphasize...
- The lighting/colors enhance the mood by...
- The soundtrack supports the tension by...
- The actor's portrayal of [Character] adds...
- Themes of [theme] are woven throughout...

4. Personal Response and Evaluation

- What resonated or didn't work for you
- How the film made you feel or think

- Overall recommendation or rating

Example Starters:

- I found myself reflecting on...
 - The film's message stayed with me because...
 - This scene/character reminded me of...
 - While the film succeeds in [aspect], it falls short in...
 - Overall, I would recommend this film to...
-

5. Conclusion

- Summarize your review briefly
- Restate your main opinion
- Leave a final impression

Example Starters:

- In conclusion, [Film Title] is a compelling/forgettable...
- This film stands out because...
- Whether you're a fan of [genre], this film offers...