Digital Artist Exploring Cultural Identity

My work bridges the gap between tradition and modernity, using digital media to explore themes of cultural identity and personal history. Growing up in a multicultural household, I often felt caught between two worlds. My art reflects this tension, blending traditional motifs, like geometric patterns and calligraphy, with futuristic digital elements.

I create primarily using 3D modeling and digital collage, layering vibrant colors and textures to form surreal landscapes. Each piece tells a story, drawing from folklore, family narratives, and historical events. By reimagining these stories through a contemporary lens, I aim to challenge how we perceive heritage in a rapidly evolving world.

The process itself mirrors my themes: combining ancient inspiration with cutting-edge tools. My hope is to spark conversations about identity, belonging, and how tradition can evolve without losing its essence. Through my work, I invite viewers to reflect on their own connections to history and culture in a modern context.
