

Simple Argumentative Essay Outline Example

Introduction

- Opening idea that frames the issue
- Brief explanation of why the topic matters
- Clear thesis stating the position and direction of the argument

Body Paragraph 1

- Main point supporting the thesis
- Specific evidence that supports this point
- Explanation linking the evidence to the claim

Body Paragraph 2

- Second supporting point
- Different form of evidence or perspective
- Explanation showing how this point strengthens the argument

Counterargument and Response

- Opposing viewpoint stated fairly
- Short explanation of why some people agree with it
- Response explaining why the original position still holds

Conclusion

- Restated thesis in new words
- Short recap of the main supporting points
- Closing idea that leaves the reader with a broader takeaway