

LOVE IS NOT RUDE

Polite Words Toolbox

A hands-on activity about showing love through respectful words and actions

Name: _____

Date: _____

Materials

- A clean used box, jar, or small container
- Paper or index cards
- Markers, crayons, colored pencils, stickers, or other decorations
- Scissors and glue or tape (optional)

Instructions

1. Choose a clean used box, jar, or container. This will become your Polite Words Toolbox.
2. Decorate your toolbox. You can add hearts, kind words, drawings, stickers, or anything that reminds you to show love.
3. Cut small pieces of paper or use the phrase cards on page 2.
4. Write one polite or respectful phrase on each piece of paper. Think of words you can use at home, at school, at church, or with friends.
5. Place all of your polite phrases inside the toolbox.
6. Each day, choose one phrase from your toolbox and look for a chance to use it.

Think About It

How can using polite words help another person feel loved and respected?

Love uses words that are kind, respectful, and thoughtful.

POLITE WORDS FOR MY TOOLBOX

Cut out these cards, or use them as ideas to write your own.

Please.

Thank you!

Excuse me.

May I help you?

I'm sorry.

You can go first.

May I please have a turn?

Are you okay?

Would you like to join us?

I like your idea.

Can I share with you?

I forgive you.

Good job!

I can listen.

How can I help?

That's okay.
