OVERVIEW

I have a lot of experience designing both consumer and business-facing products in fast-paced tech environments. I'm open to working both as a manager and an individual contributor, but I always like to get my hands dirty and be involved with production.

EXPERIENCE

Design Lead at Klarna

STOCKHOLM /// 2020–2025

I reimagined the Klarna card onboarding experience and led an initiative that made the card profitable. I was also a design manager and mentor, and worked on projects to enhance internal AI tools.

Product Designer at Yelp

SAN FRANCISCO & HAMBURG /// 2016–2020

I improved Yelp's reservations product, helped introduce an online waitlist into the Yelp ecosystem, and created ads products for huge brands like McDonald's and Starbucks.

Product Design Intern at Yelp

SAN FRANCISCO /// SUMMER 2014 & 2015

EDUCATION

Rhode Island School of Design

PROVIDENCE /// 2012–2016

BFA Graphic Design w/ Honors & Student Commencement Speaker

SKILLS

Design

I work with leaders to shape their strategic vision into beautiful, functional digital products. I have a good eye for detail and a strong sense for how to design with scale in mind.

Soft Skills

I'm adaptable, communicative, self-aware, and friendly.
I'm an experienced manager, mentor, and workshop facilitator.
I go out of my way to be an engaged team member and leader.
