

VERAXA Biotech Receives 99.57% Approval for Merger - Path to NASDAQ Listing Under «VRXA» Cleared

Zurich, March 3, 2026: VERAXA Biotech AG («VERAXA»), a portfolio company of Xlife Sciences AG («Xlife Sciences», SIX: XLS) and a leading developer of novel antibody-based cancer therapies, achieved a major milestone at its Extraordinary General Meeting («EGM») on 27 February 2026. Shareholders overwhelmingly approved the merger between VERAXA Biotech AG, Veraxa Biotech Holding AG, and Voyager Acquisition Corp. («Voyager», NASDAQ: VACH).

With 12,680,593 votes - representing 99.57% of the share capital present - the merger was approved, marking an impressive vote of confidence in VERAXA's strategic development. The transaction will be executed as an absorption merger, under which Veraxa Biotech Holding AG, as the acquiring entity, will integrate VERAXA Biotech AG and subsequently be renamed Veraxa Biotech AG. The existing management team, led by CEO Dr. Christoph Antz, will continue to steer the company's operations.

Dr. Christoph Antz, CEO of VERAXA Biotech AG, commented: «We are grateful for the strong support of our shareholders. VERAXA is exceptionally well positioned to create long-term value and advance patient-focused, innovative cancer therapies.»

Oliver R. Baumann, CEO of Xlife Sciences AG, added: «The clear approval from shareholders underscores the confidence in VERAXA's strategic direction and validates our approach of guiding scientifically outstanding platforms toward the capital markets. VERAXA combines strong technology, excellent science, and an experienced management team - the ideal foundation for sustainable success on the international stage.»

Further details on the Extraordinary General Meeting are available on the VERAXA Biotech AG website (link). Following approval by Voyager's shareholders on 12 March 2026, the merger will be completed and trading will commence shortly thereafter. The information published in this context represents a summary only. Full details can be found in the transaction documents filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and in Voyager's proxy statement/prospectus dated 19 February 2026.

Participants In the Solicitation

Voyager, VERAXA, and their respective directors, executive officers, other members of management and employees may be deemed participants in the solicitation of proxies from Voyager's shareholders with respect to the transaction. Investors and security holders may obtain more detailed information regarding the names and interests in the transaction of Voyager's directors and officers in Voyager's filings with the SEC, including, when filed with the SEC, the preliminary proxy statement/prospectus, the definitive proxy statement/prospectus, amendments and supplements thereto, and other documents filed with the SEC. Such information with respect to VERAXA's directors and executive officers will also be included in the proxy statement/prospectus. You may obtain free copies of these documents as described below under the heading "Additional Information and Where to Find It".

Non-Solicitation

This press release is not a proxy statement or solicitation of a proxy, consent or authorization with respect to any securities or in respect of the potential transaction and shall not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy the securities of Voyager or VERAXA, nor shall there be any sale of any such securities in any state or jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation, or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of such state or jurisdiction. No offer of securities shall be made except by means of a prospectus meeting the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release includes forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws with respect to the proposed transaction between Voyager and VERAXA. Forward-looking statements are statements that are not historical facts. Such forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties, which could cause actual results to differ from the forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements generally are identified by the words "believe," "project," "expect," "anticipate," "estimate," "intend," "think," "strategy," "future," "opportunity," "potential," "plan," "seeks," "may," "should," "will," "would," "will be," "will continue," "will likely result," and similar expressions, but the absence of these words does not mean that a statement is not forward-looking. Forward-looking statements are predictions, projections and other statements about future events that are based on current expectations and assumptions and, as a result, are subject to risks and uncertainties.

These forward-looking statements are provided for illustrative purposes only and are not intended to serve as, and must not be relied on as, a guarantee, an assurance, a prediction or a definitive statement of fact or probability. Actual events and circumstances are difficult or impossible to predict and will differ from assumptions. Many factors could cause actual future events to differ materially from the forward-looking statements in this communication, including but not limited to: (i) the risk that the proposed transaction may not be completed in a timely manner or at all; (ii) the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstance that could give rise to the termination of the business combination agreement;

(iii) the failure to achieve the minimum amount of cash available following any redemptions by Voyager's stockholders; (iv) redemptions exceeding anticipated levels or the failure to meet initial listing standards in connection with the consummation of the transaction;

(v) the effect of the announcement or pendency of the transaction on VERAXA's business relationships, operating results, and business generally; (vi) changes in the markets in which VERAXA competes, including with respect to its competitive landscape, technology evolution, or regulatory changes; (vii) changes in domestic and global general economic conditions; (viii) costs related to the proposed transaction and the failure to realize anticipated benefits of the transaction or to realize estimated pro forma results and underlying assumptions, including with respect to estimated stockholder redemptions; (ix) the ability to recognize the anticipated benefits of the transaction and to achieve its commercialization and development plans, and identify and realize additional opportunities, which may be affected by, among other things, competition, the ability of VERAXA to grow and manage growth economically and hire and retain key employees and to develop, license or acquire new therapeutics; (x) the risk that VERAXA may fail to keep pace with rapid technological developments to provide new and innovative products and services; (xi) uncertainties inherent in the execution, cost, and completion of preclinical studies and clinical trials; risks related to regulatory review, and approval and commercial development; (xii) risks associated with intellectual property protection; (xiii) uncertainties inherent in the execution, cost, and completion of preclinical studies and clinical trials; and (xiv) those factors discussed in Voyager's filings with the SEC and that will be contained in the proxy statement/prospectus relating to the proposed transaction. The foregoing list of factors is not exhaustive. You should carefully consider the foregoing factors and the other risks and uncertainties that will be described in the "Risk Factors" section of the proxy statement/prospectus and the amendments thereto, the definitive proxy statement/prospectus, and other documents to be filed by Voyager from time to time with the SEC.

These filings identify and address other important risks and uncertainties that could cause actual events and results to differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking statements.

Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made. Readers are cautioned not to put undue reliance on forward-looking statements, and while VERAXA and Voyager may elect to update these forward-looking statements at some point in the future, they assume no obligation to update or revise these forward-looking statements, whether because of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by applicable law. Neither VERAXA nor Voyager gives any assurance that VERAXA or Voyager, or the combined company, will achieve its expectations. These forward-looking statements should not be relied upon as representing Voyager's or VERAXA's assessments as of any date after the date of this press release. Accordingly, undue reliance should not be placed upon the forward-looking. Forward-looking statements are subject to numerous conditions, many of which are beyond the control of the Company, including those set forth in the Risk Factors section of the Registration Statement and related preliminary prospectus to be filed in connection with the initial public offering with the SEC. Copies will be available on the SEC's website, <https://www.sec.gov>.

Additional Information and Where to Find It

In connection with the business combination agreement and the proposed transaction, Voyager and/or VERAXA intend to file relevant materials with the SEC, including a registration statement on Form F-4 to be filed with the SEC, which will include a proxy statement/prospectus of Voyager, and will file other documents regarding the proposed transaction with the SEC. This communication is not intended to be, and is not, a substitute for the proxy statement/prospectus or any other document that Voyager has filed or may file with the SEC in connection with the proposed transaction. When available, the definitive proxy statement and other relevant materials for the proposed transaction will be mailed or made available to stockholders of Voyager as of a record date to be established for voting on the proposed transaction.

Before making any voting or investment decision, investors and stockholders of Voyager are urged to carefully read, when they become available, the entire registration statement, the proxy statement/prospectus, and any other relevant documents filed with the SEC, as well as any amendments or supplements to these documents, and the documents incorporated by reference therein, because they will contain important information about Voyager, VERAXA, and the proposed transaction. Voyager's investors and stockholders and other interested persons will also be able to obtain copies of the registration statement, the preliminary proxy statement/prospectus, the definitive proxy statement/prospectus, other documents filed with the SEC that will be incorporated by reference therein, and all other relevant documents filed with the SEC by Voyager in connection with the Transaction, without charge, once available, at the SEC's website at www.sec.gov, or by directing a request to Voyager at the address set forth below.
