The Baptism of the Lord, January 11.

The Baptism of the Lord reveals Jesus as the beloved Son of the Father and marks the beginning of His saving mission. By humbly submitting to John's baptism, Jesus identifies Himself with sinful humanity, fulfills all righteousness, and shows us the path of repentance, love, and service. His baptism also reminds us of our own: a new beginning in which we are cleansed, filled with the Holy Spirit, and adopted as children of God.

This feast reminds us first of our identity. Through Baptism, we become sons and daughters of God, brothers and sisters of Christ, members of His Church, temples of the Holy Spirit, and heirs of heaven. Baptism is the foundation of Christian life, the gateway to life in the Spirit and to all the other sacraments (CCC 1213). Each time we bless ourselves with holy water, we recall this identity—that we are redeemed by Christ, forgiven, cleansed, and made part of God's family.

Second, Jesus' baptism reminds us of our mission: to live as God's children in thought, word, and action. We are called to recognize God's presence within us and in others, to honour every person with humility, love, and service, and to live in such a way that the Father may say to us, "You are my beloved son/daughter, with whom I am well pleased."

This is the second epiphany of the Lord. In the waters of the Jordan, Christ reveals His humility and His saving purpose. The Holy One stands among sinners, taking upon Himself the sins of the world and burying them in the waters, dedicating Himself fully to the redemption of humanity.

"Like Jesus, we're called to live out our faith, bearing good fruit, resisting temptation, and spreading God's love." St. Elizabeth Ann Seton

Christmas Beyond the Season

Christmas does not end when the decorations come down; its spirit is meant to shape the whole year. To live the spirit of Christmas throughout the year is to keep Christ at the center of our daily lives—to pray faithfully, to worship regularly, and to let the love we celebrated at the manger guide our choices. It means sharing generously our time, our talents, and our resources, reaching out to those in need, and serving one another with humility and compassion. When we live with kindness, forgiveness, gratitude, and charity, we keep the light of Christmas alive and allow Christ to be born again in our hearts and in our community.

End to violence

Called Home to the Father:

Normand Lepage: Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen

Pope's Prayer Intention for January: For prayer with the Word of God: Let us pray that praying with the Word of God be nourishment for our lives and a source of hope in our communities, helping us to build a more fraternal and missionary Church.
