The Annunciation- March 25

Feast of Annunciation commemorates two events: First, on this day, the Archangel Gabriel appeared to Mary to announce that she was to be the Mother of the Redeemer and Messiah promised for centuries. Second, on the same day, the Incarnation took place: God the Son, the second person of the Holy Trinity, assumed a human body and soul and became the Son of Mary and Joseph. The feast day Mass will be at 9 am on Wednesday, March 25.

HOLY WEEK

Palm Sunday: Palm Sunday, also known as Passion Sunday, marks the beginning of Holy Week. It commemorates Jesus' entry into Jerusalem, where He was greeted by crowds waving palm branches. On this day, we hold palm branches in our hands and feel the breeze as we wave them, just as Jesus' followers did when they welcomed Him to the city. We honour Jesus on this day as our humble King, who will soon be crowned with thorns.

Easter Triduum: The Easter Triduum, which begins on the evening of Holy Thursday and extends to the evening of Easter Sunday, is the peak of the liturgical year, focusing on the Paschal Mystery of Christ's suffering, death, and resurrection. The single celebration of the Triduum marks the end of the Lenten season and leads to the Mass of the Resurrection of the Lord at the Easter Vigil.

Holy Thursday: On Holy Thursday, we celebrate the Mass of the Lord's Supper, commemorating the Last Supper that Jesus shared with his disciples. During this meal, Jesus offered his Body and Blood, instituting the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist for the forgiveness of sins and our salvation. Jesus also revealed the true meaning of service and humility by washing the feet of his disciples.

Good Friday: A day of fasting and prayer, commemorating Jesus' suffering and death on the cross. The liturgy includes the reading of Jesus' passion and death from the Gospel of St. John along with an opportunity to pray and venerate the Cross of our Lord.

Holy Saturday, (Easter Vigil): This is the greatest night of the Church's liturgical year with the lighting of the new fire, the proclamation of the Paschal Mystery, and the celebration of the sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation for adults. This marks the beginning of the Easter celebration and the Resurrection of Jesus.

Easter Sunday: Easter Sunday marks the culmination of Holy Week, celebrating the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. It is a day of exuberant celebration through Holy Mass, prayer, and joyful festivities, expressing gratitude for our Salvation and Hope by our Risen Lord.

Donate Towards Easter Flowers

You are invited to donate towards the purchase of Easter flowers to decorate the sanctuary for the Easter celebration. Please write "Easter Flowers" on the pink envelope when making your donation, along with your envelope number.
