All Saints Day: November 1

The Solemnity of All Saints, celebrated on November 1, honours all those who have attained eternal glory in heaven, both canonized saints and those known to God alone. Originating in the early Church's remembrance of martyrs, this feast reminds us of our universal call to holiness. In Gaudete et Exsultate (Rejoice and Be Glad), Pope Francis reminds us that everyone is called to holiness through everyday acts of love, kindness, forgiveness, and service. May the saints inspire us to follow Jesus faithfully, allowing God's grace to transform our lives.

All Souls Day: November 2

November 2 is All Souls' Day, a day when the Catholic Church prays in a special way for the faithful departed. Throughout November, we remember our deceased loved ones and offer prayers for the repose of their souls. According to Catholic teaching, those who die in God's grace and friendship will attain eternal life in heaven. Those who freely and knowingly reject God and die unrepentant in mortal sin separate themselves from Him forever. Those who die in God's grace but still need purification undergo this final purification in purgatory before entering heaven.

The Church teaches that our prayers, good works, and sacrifices can help the souls in purgatory as they undergo purification. Although they cannot merit for themselves, we can assist them through our prayers, especially by offering the Holy Mass for their intentions.

As we observe All Souls' Day, let us remember our departed loved ones with faith and hope, trusting in God's mercy and the promise of eternal life and prepare our hearts for eternal life with God.

All Souls Day Mass will be celebrated on Monday, November 2nd at 9.00 am, & 6: 00pm.

Come, pray, and offer the Mass for your beloved deceased ones.

Book of the Names of the Deceased

During November, we display the Book of the Dead in the sanctuary and pray for our faithful departed. To add names of loved ones not previously included, please use the purple form at the back of the church or email their names, along with your name and phone number, to the parish office at: office@hnoj.ca

The Pilgrimage Continues... United in Diversity!

Join parishes across Laval for an intercultural afternoon of interactive workshops, cultural discoveries, and meaningful encounters. Celebrate our diverse traditions, share experiences, and grow together in faith, friendship, and understanding!
