CHOICE LOVE

Choice Love is an American Record Producer, Songwriter and Independent R&B Soul Artist.

Choice started his career opening for Joe, Faith Eve, Eric Benet and Frankie Beverly and Maze all while gaining attention for his writing style. From the relationships gained from meeting and performing for these iconic artists. Choice was invited to perform for TSU's homecoming.

The homecoming was such a success that Choice was asked to play other HBCU's. In addition to TSU, other notable venues were Fisk University and the African Street Fest.

In 2017 Choice was nominated for Best New Artist by both the Eddy Awards and SEA (Southern Entertainment Awards). This notoriety gained him and his producer Anthony Pettus the opportunity to write for Chris Brown, Ginuwine and SWV. On July 2, 2017 Choice was invited to perform alongside "SantiagoXTheNatural" and Akon at the St. Louis Fest.

Music has afforded Choice some amazing opportunities, including being able to travel internationally and perform for other countries. In 2018 Choice, his media team and producer traveled overseas for the first time to London. There we were able to perform and gain wisdom, inspiration, friendships and/or collaborations opportunities with and from DJ Emily Rawson and The Last Poets. In addition, Choice has also collaborated with Micki Miller, Be On It ,Wally West, B. East, Da Natural and Izza Kizza and L8boom.
