

Love

is giving of myself to meet others' needs whether they deserve it or not, expecting nothing in return, all for the glory of God and only by the grace of God.

Love

is giving of myself to meet others' needs whether they deserve it or not, expecting nothing in return, all for the glory of God and only by the grace of God.

Love

is giving of myself to meet others' needs whether they deserve it or not, expecting nothing in return, all for the glory of God and only by the grace of God.

Love

is giving of myself to meet others' needs whether they deserve it or not, expecting nothing in return, all for the glory of God and only by the grace of God.