

Sibi puts your products inside the decision, matched to what each property needs.

WHO SIBI IS

A platform for buying and managing everything that goes into a property.

Sibi is the reasoning layer for property decisions: it knows what's in every property and applies each buyer's rules to every order.

Where your products fit

A property needs something

A replacement, a turn, or a new build starts on Sibi.

Sibi matches the job

Options are matched to what's installed, the property specs, and the buyer's standards.
