This six-story historic building in the heart of Minneapolis' Warehouse District offers vibrant, character-rich spaces, ideal for creative teams and businesses looking to be part of a dynamic and energetic downtown community.

The Consortium

About the Property

The Consortium building is a historic brick-and-timber office and retail property in the heart of Minneapolis' dynamic Warehouse District. A contributing structure to the Historic Warehouse District, the building blends timeless architecture with flexible commercial space. The first floor is home to two vibrant entertainment venues—longtime anchor Fine Line Music Café and the recently added Club Gidi. Floors two through six offer a variety of office suites, ideal for creative firms, startups, or established businesses seeking an authentic downtown presence. With high ceilings, exposed brick, and stunning views of the downtown skyline, the building offers a unique mix of character and functionality.

Location

The Consortium building sits within an energized and walkable commercial corridor of Minneapolis. The Warehouse District is known for its historic architecture, industrial charm, and modern urban appeal—surrounded by restaurants, nightlife destinations, entertainment venues, and a growing residential base. Tenants benefit from excellent access to I-394 and I-94, multiple transit options including bus, light rail, and the Northstar Line, and convenient parking in adjacent lots and nearby ramps. The area attracts a highly educated and affluent demographic, along with consistent daytime foot traffic, offering businesses an unmatched opportunity to thrive in a vibrant, connected, and growing downtown neighborhood.
