

Colour Explorer Missions

Draw a simple flower on some paper. With a friend, take it in turns to choose a colour for each petal. What wonderful creations will you come up with when you work together?

Imagine your perfect bedroom. What colours would you choose for your walls, floor and ceiling? Would they all be similar? Or perhaps opposite? Will you have patterns, or no patterns at all?

Pop some calm music on and doodle away. Now play some fun and upbeat songs and draw some more. Do you notice any changes in what you've drawn?

Go on a colour scavenger hunt outside with your grown-up. Point out and take photos of colours you like. It could be a bright green leaf, or the colour of a car. You might even discover a colour you've not seen before!

Choosing Colours

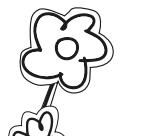

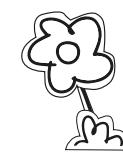

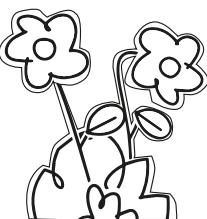

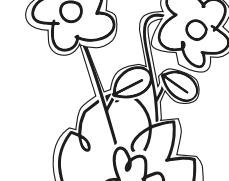

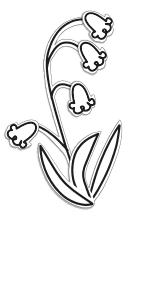

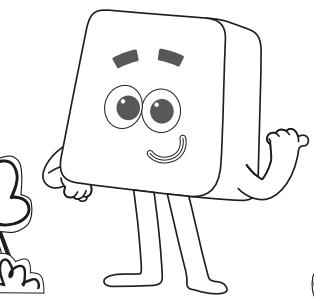

This colourful quest belongs to...

Help Red and Blue colour in the flowers in the colours they choose.

Everything should be red, red, red!

I don't want to rush it. Maybe some blue, yellow and green would do?
