

Colour Explorer Missions

Watch Purple's Mural Makeover again. Pause the episode at the grand reveal, and have a go at naming all the purples in the mural, from blue to red! Is it more red-ish, purple-ish or blue-ish?

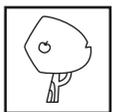

Colour it if you've done it

Make your own purple creation, by mixing blue, red and purple paint. You could paint flowers, or a cute butterfly. You could try having a blue-ish purple as a base, and adding a red-ish purple pattern on top. Have fun experimenting!

Colour it if you've done it

The more shades of purple the better! Have your own royal parade. Shout, in your best royal voice, 'Purple is the colour of kings and queens!'

Mixing Colours

Purple's Mural Makeover

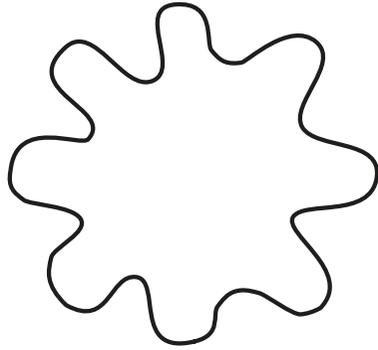

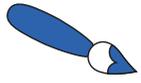

Experiment with mixing your own purples on the extra sheet. And then paint Purple's mural.

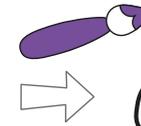

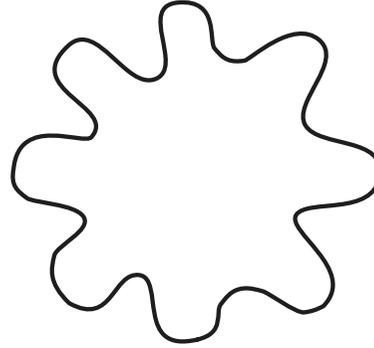

Mixing sheet!

Pop some newspaper down and grab an apron. Have some fun mixing purple here!

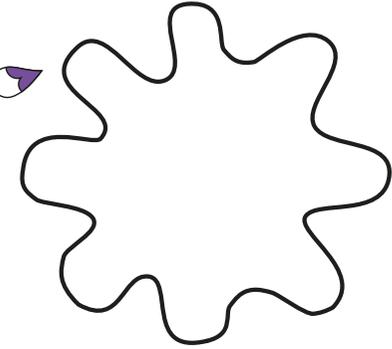

First, blob some blue paint here.

Now try mixing your own purple!

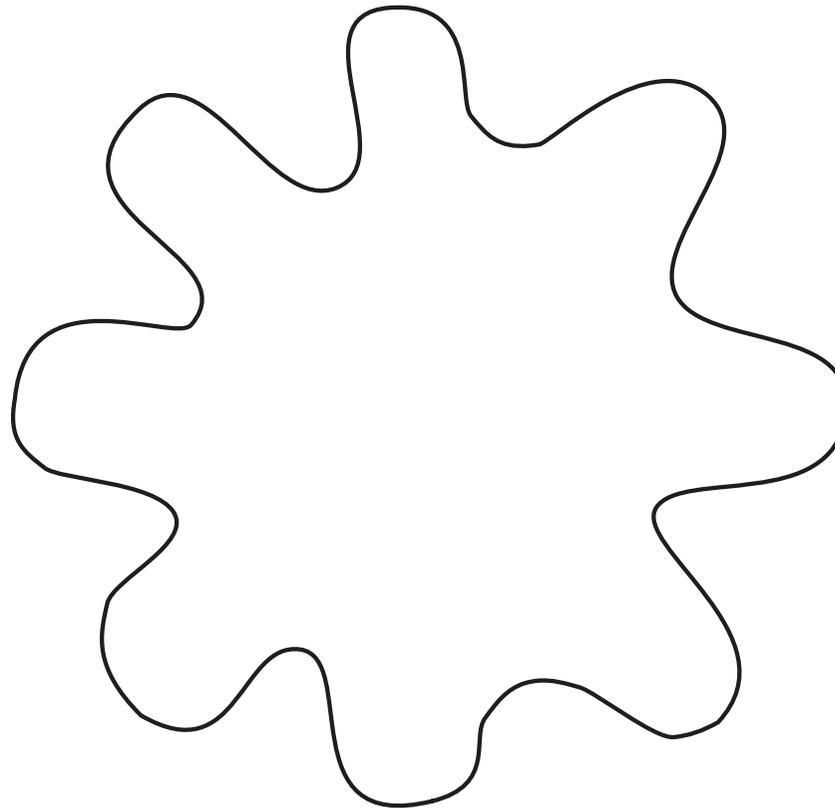

Mix blue and red together in this blob!

How would you describe the colour you've mixed?

Is it reddish purple or bluish purple?

Is it as bright as your purple blob above or duller?

Try mixing different purplish colours, with different amounts of blue and red!
