Look in a book. Can you find a word that starts with qu?

Q needs U to make her sound, so start by pretending you can't say anything. Then pretend to give U a big hug, saying a loud qu! qu! qu!

Try to say this tongue-twister:
Kim gets ducks. Ducks quack quick. But Kim's quick quack ducks will quit quick.

Draw a queen for QU, or a duck that can quack.

Shrug your shoulders and moan u! u! u! like everything is unfair.

Well done!
