

Number Explorer Missions

Draw 50 big dots on a piece of paper, and randomly label them 1 to 50. Then use a pencil to connect all the dots in order!

Scan the QR code to head to Half Century Mountain and join the Numberblocks singing to defeat Infinaughty!

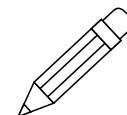

Play Together

Draw a snake-like path on a long strip of paper, with 50 numbered squares from start to finish. Take it in turns to roll a dice and jump along the path, counting each square you land on out loud! Who will get to number 50 first?

Everybody counts!

This mission belongs to _____

Infinaughty is back with his best cosmic prank yet...

No number can be said out loud!

But he never said anything about singing! ➡

Level 4

Counting to Fifty

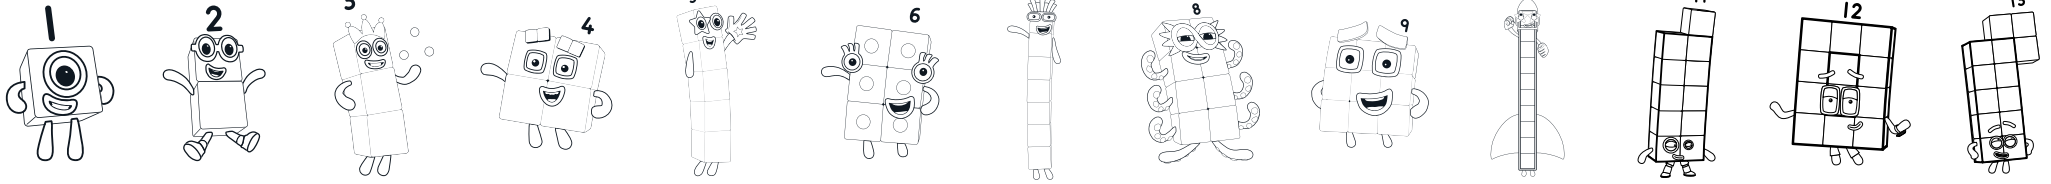

Everybody Counts

Sing along!

Colour each Block, write their Numberling, and sing their number out loud! Finally, ask a grown-up to help you cut out the strips, tape them together, and hang them up.
