

Number Explorer Missions

With your grown-up find 5 books. Stack them on top of each other and count them. Then place them on the ground in a line or in a pattern, can you see that they look different, but there are always 5 books?

Make building block towers of different sizes, from 1 block up to 5. Have your grown-up wrap them in foil or wrapping paper. Can you feel how tall they are? Now, unwrap each one to see if you were right!

Play Together

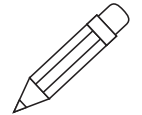

Have fun playing a cosmic prank like Infinaughty! Put 5 toys in a row, then ask your grown-up to look away. Put the toys in a different order and see if your grown-up can say how many toys there are.

For your next mission, find the episode 'An Even Split'
