ABOUT

Becca Denison is a staff accountant in the Chattanooga office where she assists in tax preparation and audit work. Clients and peers alike recognize Becca's dedication and commitment to the accounting profession. One of her favorite things about her position is developing strong and meaningful relationships with clients.

Prior to joining HHM, Becca attended Troy University where she balanced pursuing her accounting degree and a successful college softball career. She obtained a master of accountancy from her alma mater shortly after graduating. She credits her strong work ethic to both of her parents as well as her athletic endeavors.

In Becca's free time, she enjoys working out and traveling to new places with her friends and family.
