ABOUT

Blake Bennett has over 10 years of tax and accounting experience. As a manager in the tax department, his time is spent on the preparation and review of partnership and corporate returns, tax research, tax planning, and cost segregations. In addition, he specializes in offering tax consulting and compliance services to a broad range of clients and closely held businesses

Clients appreciate the work ethic Blake employs to get things right for each engagement, and his willingness to spend extra time researching to find the correct solution for each issue. In addition to his work for clients, Blake plays a big role in training staff and sharing his tax and industry expertise with the firm.

A Chattanooga native, Blake enjoys spending any free time golfing and traveling.
