ABOUT

Chase Lloyd is a manager in the accounting and assurance department. He oversees the completion of audits, reviews, and compilations for clients in nonprofit, governmental, and manufacturing and distribution industries, as well as other privately-held organizations. He is responsible for the full engagement cycle including planning, risk assessments, and financial statement preparation, review, and presentation. He enjoys working with his clients to determine what their pain points are so that he can improve their operational issues.

Chase began his public accounting career at HHM in 2008, prior to relocating to Denver, Colorado for six years where he worked for a large regional firm on a variety of audit engagements. He gained extensive experience with complex debt, equity, and financial reporting.

In his free time, Chase enjoys brewing beer, woodworking, and camping with his wife.
