ABOUT

Austin Sams joined the dealership services group in 2019. He provides comprehensive planning and compliance services to dealership clients with regional, national, and international operations. In addition, he prepares federal, multi-state tax, and international tax filings for high net-worth individuals, medium to large corporate businesses, and partnerships.

Prior to joining HHM, Austin gained experience at a regional CPA firm and through accounting internships.

Originally from Cincinnati, Ohio, Austin was recruiting by the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga wrestling team. On the weekends, Austin enjoys checking out live music downtown or enjoying some of Chattanooga's swimming holes.
