

Welcome to Mobile PREP

This one-day, interactive course will prepare you to collaborate with your overseas counterparts in support of criminal justice development programs for the United States Department of State. It is designed to draw from your experience to enhance learning and professional networking.

Participant Profile

Criminal justice professionals deploying on international assignments to help foreign partners build, reform, and sustain effective criminal justice systems on behalf of the State Department's Bureau of International Narcotics and Law Enforcement Affairs (INL).

Course Explorer

On-demand, online resource for taking a deeper dive into the course content, researching the specific dynamics of your partner nation, and accessing key resources

