

2026-2027 SEASON

Cultural ARTS CENTER
-GLEN ALLEN-

Dear Friends,

As I sit at the keyboard writing this welcome letter for the 18th time, I am at a loss for words to truly express what I am feeling. So I will get right to the heart of my message...I have announced my retirement from the Cultural Arts Center, effective in January 2027.

I have loved every minute of my time at The Cultural Arts Center and am very proud of all we have accomplished during my tenure. We have added more shows, created an outdoor stage, added great classes to our roster, explored new art, and showcased hundreds of artists from our region, the country, and beyond. We have expanded our signature ArtReach programs, working within the juvenile justice system, offering art experiences to youth from our area who are incarcerated; opened a supportive space for those living with memory issues and their caregivers. It is beyond rewarding to see the way lives have been changed and enhanced through our efforts. It truly proves that art can and does make a real difference in the lives of individuals and in our community.

I have had the distinct privilege of working alongside a team of dedicated professionals who share a passion for the arts and a Board of Directors who have given of their time and resources to lead with great vision and passion. It has also been an honor to work with the amazing leadership of Henrico County. Their support and encouragement have been a huge factor in The Center's success. Our volunteers are among the best, as they step up to help in so many areas of our operations. I am continually amazed by our best-in-class instructors and the talented artists featured in the gift shop.

One of my greatest joys has been getting to know all of you. Welcoming you to shows, gallery events, and other Center activities has been among my most cherished times at The Center. Your support and friendship on a personal level are most appreciated. And your support of our programs through your participation and generosity to the Center has been a major contributor to our success.

While I will miss my role, I intend to spend the remainder of 2026 enjoying and reveling in our exciting line-up of performances and events. From awesome musical shows to plays, storytelling, art exhibits, an International Dance Festival, and our iconic Illuminations event kicking off the holiday season...I will be savoring every single experience and interaction with each and every one of you. I hope you will share my enthusiasm about the exciting things we have in store for you this season and take full advantage of all our programs.

I am confident in the future of The Center. We have some audacious plans in place to move The Center forward, keeping it relevant by implementing new programs while staying true to our roots as a welcoming, affordable, accessible arts center dedicated to our mission of building community through the transformative power of the arts. In other words, the Center will continue to grow and thrive for the sake of our patrons...both long-time and new. The selection of a new President/CEO will be the beginning of an exciting new chapter in the history of The Center.

Thank you from the bottom of my heart for being a part of my 18-year journey at the Cultural Arts Center. All the people I have met and the work we have done will always hold a special place in my heart as the best years of my career.

See you at The Center!

K Alferio
President and CEO

For over 40 years, the KOS Band has been entertaining audiences up and down the east coast. Known for their versatility and powerful performances, this 11-piece group rocks, rolls, swings, and boogies their way through Top 40, Motown, classic rock, and beach faves. They are consistent contenders and three-time winners of Richmond Times Dispatch 'Best Local Band' award. Just in time for the holidays, the KOS Band will bring their spectacular Christmas show to Glen Allen!

A man in a black tuxedo with a white shirt and a dark bow tie is sitting at a piano. He is smiling and has his left hand resting on the piano keys. The piano is a grand piano with a gold-colored frame. The background is dark, and the lighting is focused on the man and the piano.

GIVE THE GIFT OF ART

At the Cultural Arts Center, we believe that art changes lives. Through our outreach programs, we see these transformations daily; from the joy experienced by senior citizens living with memory loss, to teens in the juvenile justice system who learn to manage their emotions through sketching, writing, and music, to expanded horizons for children living in low-income areas. Your donations allow us to bring the joy of artistic expression – many without cost – to those in our community who lack access. Consider adding a donation to your ticket or subscription purchase, or simply make a gift today!

Alfonso Pérez Acosta: CONVIVENCIAS

July 16, 2026 – August 31, 2026

Art Opening: July 16, 2026, 6-8pm

Convivencias is a word in Spanish that refers to “ways of living actively together”. In this exhibition, drawings, paintings and installations invite the visitors to CONVIVIR with different cultures, interests and ways of connecting.

Common Ground:

An RVA Clay Member Exhibition

September 10, 2026 – October 26, 2026

Art Opening: September 10, 2026, 6-8pm

RVA Clay - Common Ground brings together the diverse voices of Richmond’s clay community in a shared celebration of ceramic art. Rooted in creativity and connection, the exhibition highlights the unique perspectives and techniques that connect RVA Clay members through their common passion for the medium.

OMA (Opening Minds through Art):

Connections in Color

November 5, 2026 – January 4, 2027

Art Opening: November 5, 2026, 6-8pm

Connections in Color showcases vibrant abstract works born from person-centered partnerships between artists with neurocognitive changes and dedicated volunteers. By focusing on what each artist can create, this exhibition proves that the relational bond—not just memory—is the true catalyst for profound creative expression.

Jeff Hall: Trigger Warning

January 14, 2027 – March 1, 2027

Art Opening: January 14, 2027, 6-8pm

Trigger Warning is a multidisciplinary exploration of gun culture in the American South and the systems that shape how communities define safety, power, and responsibility. By reimagining familiar objects through painting, printmaking, and sculpture, the work invites viewers to reflect on the tensions between protection, fear, and division.

KONKONS/ Konstantina & Ignat Konstantinov:

Retro-Spectrum

March 11, 2027 – April 26, 2027

Art Opening: March 11, 2027, 6-8pm

Retro-Spectrum offers a global view into KonKon’s mixed media experimentation from as early as 2000 to now. This collection reflects a wide range of subject matter, technical approaches, and visual styles, offering a rich and engaging experience for viewers with diverse artistic interests.

MidAtlantic Pastel Society:

Expressions in Pastels

May 6, 2027 – June 21, 2027

Art Opening: May 6, 2027, 6-8pm

MidAtlantic Pastel Society (MAPS) presents their 11th annual judged show, Expressions in Pastel, with the internationally renowned pastelist Loriann Signori as juror.

Katie Kameen: In Re: Plastic

July 1, 2027 – August 16, 2027

Art Opening: July 1, 2027, 6-8pm

In Re: Plastic, Katie Kameen transforms secondhand and post-consumer plastics into colorful sculptures inspired by personal memories. By deconstructing mass-produced objects like toys and household goods, she explores shape, color, movement, and abstraction while encouraging reflection on plastic, consumer culture, and domestic life.

SLANTWALL GALLERY SCHEDULE

Marcia Haffmans: Skewing Lines

July 16, 2026 – August 31, 2026

Art Opening: July 16, 2026, 6-8pm

“Personal handwriting is a liberating artform from within the most restrictive spaces of existence. Think of handwritten diaries of people creatively writing away fear while not being seen.” – Marcia Haffmans. Haffmans’ installation Skewing Lines uses the power of authentic handwritten expressions of women as a way to imagine freeing possibilities of reciprocity.

Camera Club of Richmond:

Seasons of Change

September 10, 2026 – November 2, 2026

Art Opening: September 10, 2026, 6-8pm

Members of the Camera Club of Richmond present Seasons of Change. These works explore a wide range of ideas, including the shifting moods of seasonal weather, the life cycles of flora and fauna, and the evolution - both growth and decline - of the built environment.

Holiday Wreath Exhibit

November 2, 2026 – January 4, 2027

Our Holiday Wreath exhibit showcases wreaths created by local artists. Unlike our other exhibits, purchased wreaths may be purchased and taken home the same day, allowing you to enjoy the season’s beauty right away.

Maggie L. Walker Governor’s School:

Art Showcase

January 14, 2027 – March 1, 2027

Art Opening: January 14, 2027, 6-8pm

This exhibition features artwork by students from Maggie L. Walker Governor’s School’s visual arts program. Showcasing a range of media and perspectives, the exhibition is curated and installed by advanced art students, offering a hands-on introduction to the professional practice of organizing a gallery exhibition.

James River Art League: Spring Show

March 11, 2027 – April 26, 2027

Art Opening: March 11, 2027, 6-8pm

James River Art League is a non-profit organization with over 150 juried artists in the Central Virginia area. Their artists work in a wide range of media, including oil, acrylic, watercolor, pastel, graphite, pen and ink, collage, mixed media and more.

Student & Instructor Show

May 6, 2027 – June 21, 2027

Art Opening: May 6, 2027, 6-8pm

A vibrant celebration of creativity and growth, this exhibition highlights the evolving artistic vision of The Center’s instructors and students. Featuring a range of artistic mediums, this show offers a glimpse into the shared journey of learning, experimentation, and artistic expression within the walls of The Center.

Elise Wojtowicz: Mud Immaculate

July 1, 2027 – August 16, 2027

Art Opening: July 1, 2027, 6-8pm

Mud Immaculate is a photographic still life project that reframes drainage ditches as places of quiet vitality, urging us to look with a more nuanced eye at the environments we create, inhabit, and inherit. The project reveals the unexpected biodiversity and liminal elegance of such sites, posing the question: what can we salvage from our wreckage?

GLASS DOORS GALLERY SCHEDULE

Pryiah Bhagat: What's A Doll
July 16, 2026 – August 31, 2026

Art Opening: July 16, 2026, 6-8pm

What is a doll—an object long tied to transformation and childhood play? Pryiah Bhagat is a self-taught, multidisciplinary textile artist who creates Black dolls that celebrate the beauty and resilience of Black culture, working from her home in Chesterfield, Virginia for over a decade.

Call for Entries: Artifacts of the "Now"
September 10, 2026 – November 2, 2026

Art Opening: September 10, 2026, 6-8pm

Artifacts of the "Now" explores the current moment – physical, geographical, and cultural through the lens of sculpture, 2D media, and more. All artists are invited to apply to this open call for artwork at cacga.artcall.org.

Paul "Buddy" Terrell: Ebb and Flow
January 14, 2027 – March 1, 2027

Art Opening: January 14, 2027, 6-8pm

Inspired by Wabi-Sabi, Terrell embraces the unpredictability of Raku firing, where surface, form, and process become a poetic ritual. In Terrell's "Naked Raku" work, slips and glazes fall away to reveal smoke-drawn patterns, often contrasted with wood as a Zen-like focal point. Through these elements and water metaphors, Terrell's work reflects transformation and a personal, spiritual connection to nature.

Jude Schlotzhauer: Creations in Glass
March 11, 2027 – April 26, 2027

Art Opening: March 11, 2027, 6-8pm

Jude Schlotzhauer is a full-time studio artist whose work explores the expressive possibilities of glass through sculpture and architectural installations. A longtime educator who taught glassworking for more than 30 years at Virginia Commonwealth University, Schlotzhauer has exhibited at universities, art centers, and public spaces across the United States and internationally.

Kay Franz: Communing With Clay
May 6, 2027 – June 21, 2027

Art Opening: May 6, 2027, 6-8pm

Franz's work is greatly influenced by the textures and colors of nature. Through her work, she hopes we can have a type of communion/communication that we may not be able to have face-to-face. Franz's work is one-of-a-kind, hand-built using a combination of pinch, slab, and coil techniques.

Zach Belvins-Goad: Behind The Mask
July 1, 2027 – August 16, 2027

Art Opening: July 1, 2027, 6-8pm

The work in this exhibition narrates Belvins-Goad's experiences in growing up as a queer person in Appalachia. The colors, textures, and subject matter are meant to transport the audience into nature, inviting them to recognize aspects from their own experiences in the forest as well as offering a glimpse of something new or unexpected.

MIDWAY GALLERY SCHEDULE

Susan Rivers: Blemished Beauty

July 16, 2026 – August 31, 2026

Art Opening: July 16, 2026, 6-8pm

Susan Rivers mixed media work uses vibrant color, dynamic composition, and rough texture to explore the contradictions of everyday life, where chaos and joy coexist. By weaving together conflicting elements—pain and healing, conflict and calm—Rivers creates layered, expressive pieces using diverse materials. The practice embraces both harmony and discord as essential to creative truth.

Call for Entries: Artifacts of the “Now”

September 10, 2026 – November 2, 2026

Art Opening: September 10, 2026, 6-8pm

Artifacts of the “Now” explores the current moment – physical, geographical, and cultural through the lens of sculpture, 2D media, and more. All artists are invited to apply to this open call for artwork at cacga.artcall.org.

Holiday Wreath Exhibit

November 2, 2026 – January 4, 2027

This exhibit showcases wreaths created by local artists. Unlike our other exhibits, purchased wreaths may be taken home the same day, allowing you to enjoy the season's beauty right away.

Maggie L. Walker Governor's School:

Art Showcase

January 14, 2027 – March 1, 2027

Art Opening: January 14, 2027, 6-8pm

This exhibition features artwork by students from Maggie L. Walker Governor's School's visual arts program. Showcasing a range of media and perspectives, the exhibition is curated and installed by advanced art students, offering a hands-on introduction to the professional practice of organizing a gallery exhibition.

Ina Diane Clement: The Nature of Things

March 11, 2027 – April 26, 2027

Art Opening: March 11, 2027, 6-8pm

As a self-taught abstract expressionist artist, Clement's style is 'so messy' that they began to paint predominantly outdoors, learning quickly that Mother Nature has a lot to offer - like wet paint! The Nature of Things expresses the nature of anything Clement observes or experiences. Clement not only conveys the way nature feels to them, but also their observations of the larger world.

Dana Frostick:

“Purr-spectives: Our Kinship with Cats”

May 6, 2027 – June 21, 2027

Art Opening: May 6, 2027, 6-8pm

Purr-spectives: Our Kinship with Cats, explores the similarities between feline and human behavior - love, anger, joy, fear, jealousy, and selflessness - behaviors and emotions displayed and mirrored in the interactions we see between humans. At their core, these cat paintings uncover what is universally shared with all life on Earth through the artist's individual creative lens.

Dynamic Creators: Anything Goes

July 1, 2027 – August 16, 2027

Art Opening: July 1, 2027, 6-8pm

This show reflects the various members' works that have derived from their personal favorite paintings. Dynamic Creators exhibit a variety of interesting, meaningful, and thought-provoking works that can lead the viewers into a space within themselves to reflect with curiosity, peace and a sense of wonder.

Calling all artists – to view open calls, please visit cacga.artcall.org or email exhibitions@artsglenallen.com to inquire about exhibition opportunities.
